First Date Taboo Tales 21:

Queer TV in the 21st Century Kylo-Patrick R. Hart, 2016-06-10 Television has historically been largely ineffective at representing queerness in its various forms In the 21st century however as same sex couples have seen increasing mainstream acceptance and a broader range of queer characters has appeared in the media it seems natural to assume TV portrayals of queerness have become more enlightened But have they This collection of fresh essays analyzes queerness as depicted on TV from 2000 to the present Examining Buffy the Vampire Slayer The Ellen DeGeneres Show The L Word Modern Family The New Normal Queer as Folk Queer Eye for the Straight Guy RuPaul s Drag Race Spartacus and Will Grace among other series the contributors demonstrate that queer characters in general have achieved visibility at the expense of minimizing much of their queerness with a few eye opening exceptions 21st-Century Gothic Danel Olson, 2011 Selected by a poll of more than 180 Gothic specialists creative writers professors critics and Gothic Studies program developers at universities the fifty three original works discussed in 21st Century Gothic represent the most impressive Gothic novels written around the world between 2000 2010 The essays in this volume discuss the merits of these novels highlighting the influences and key components that make them worthy of inclusion Many of the pioneer voices of Gothic Studies as well as other key critics of the field have all contributed new essays to this volume including David Punter Jerrold Hogle Karen F Stein Marie Mulvey Roberts Mary Ellen Snodgrass Tony Magistrale Don D Ammassa Mavis Haut Walter Rankin James Doig Laurence A Rickels Douglass H Thomson Sue Zlosnik Carol Margaret Davision Ruth Bienstock Anolik Glennis Byron Judith Wilt Bernice Murphy Darrell Schweitzer and June Pulliam The guide includes a preface by one of the world s leading authorities on the weird and fantastic S T Joshi Sharing their knowledge of how traditional Gothic elements and tensions surface in a changed way within a contemporary novel the contributors enhance the reader s dark enjoyment emotional involvement and appreciation of these works These essays show not only how each of these novels are Gothic but also how they advance or change Gothicism making the works both irresistible for readers and establishing their place in the Gothic canon Retheorizing Race and Whiteness in the 21st Century Charles A. Gallagher, France Winddance Twine, 2014-01-02 Retheorizing Race and Whiteness in the 21st Century examines the role whiteness and white identities play in framing and reworking racial categories hierarchies and boundaries within the context of nation class gender and immigration It takes as its theoretical starting point the understanding that whiteness is not and nor has it ever been a static uniform category of social identification The scholarship in this book uses new empirical studies to show whiteness as a multiplicity of identities that are historically grounded class specific politically manipulated and gendered social relations that inhabit local custom and national sentiment Contributors to this book examine a wide range of issues yet all chapters are linked by one common denominator they examine how power and oppression are articulated redefined and asserted through various political discourses and cultural practices that privilege whiteness even when the prerogatives of the dominant group are contested

Retheorizing Race and Whiteness in the 21st Century is an important new contribution to the study of whiteness for academics researchers and advanced students of Ethnic Studies Sociology Political Science and Ethnography This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies The Empress in the Pepper Chamber Olivia Milburn, 2021-05-13 An infamous Chinese femme fatale in history and fiction Zhao Feiyan 45 1 BCE the second empress appointed by Emperor Cheng of the Han dynasty 207 BCE 220 CE was born in slavery and trained in the performing arts a background that made her appointment as empress highly controversial Subsequent persecution by her political enemies eventually led to her being forced to commit suicide After her death her reputation was marred by accusations of vicious scheming murder of other consorts and their offspring and relentless promiscuity punctuated by bouts of extravagant shopping This first book length study of Zhao Feiyan and her literary legacy includes a complete translation of The Scandalous Tale of Zhao Feiyan Zhao Feiyan waizhuan a Tang dynasty 618 907 CE erotic novella that describes in great detail the decadent lifestyle enjoyed by imperial favorites in the harem of Emperor Cheng This landmark text was crucial for establishing writings about palace women as the accepted forum for discussing sexual matters including fetishism obsession jealousy incompatibility in marriage and so on Using historical documentation Olivia Milburn reconstructs the evolution of Zhao Feiyan's story and illuminates the broader context of palace life for women and the novella's social influence

Indonesian Islamic Fiction in the 21st Century: Representations of the Other in the Works of Forum Lingkar Pena Muh Arif Rokhman, 2022-01-28 THIS BOOK examines a selection of fictional works by writers belonging to the Indonesian association of writers Forum Lingkar Pena Pen Circle Forum hereafter referred to as FLP Figures from 2010 suggest that this organisation had around 5 000 members across 93 Indonesian branches and ten overseas branches Writers recruited and trained by FLP have produced approximately nine hundred published works Their works are often categorised as Islamic or religious literature sastra religi This labelling of FLP's literary output as Islamic literature has arisen principally because of the publicly expressed aims and beliefs of key FLP figures which include such notions as sastra dakwah literature for religious propagation In order to contextualise the emergence of FLP in the final years of the twentieth century and to locate this organisation within wider Indonesian literary developments it is necessary to take account of cultural debates that came to the fore with the profound social and political changes which accompanied the end of the New Order regime in 1998 21st Century Psychology: A Reference Handbook Stephen F. part of the North African landscape from antiquity Scholars from Morocco Algeria Tunisia Israel and the United States shed new light on Jewish life and Muslim Jewish relations in North Africa through the lenses of history anthropology language and literature The history and life stories told in this book illuminate the close cultural affinities and poignant relationships between Muslims and Jews and the uneasy coexistence that both united and divided them throughout the history of the Maghrib
