Jingjiao Glen L. Thompson, 2024-02-15 Christianity Today Award of Merit in History Biography 2025 A balanced accessible and thorough history of Jingjiao the first Christian church in China Many people assume that the first introduction of Christianity to the Chinese was part of nineteenth century Western imperialism In fact Syriac speaking Christians brought the gospel along the Silk Road into China in the seventh century Glen L Thompson introduces readers to the fascinating history of this early Eastern church referred to as Jingjiao or the Luminous Teaching Thompson presents the history of the Persian church's mission to China with rigor and clarity While Christianity remained a minority and foreign religion in the Middle Kingdom it nonetheless attracted adherents among indigenous Chinese and received imperial approval during the Tang Dynasty Though it was later suppressed alongside Buddhism it resurfaced in China and Mongolia in the twelfth century Thompson also discusses how the modern unearthing of Chinese Christian texts has stirred controversy over the meaning of

Jingjiao to recent missionary efforts in China In an accessible style Thompson guides readers through primary sources as well as up to date scholarship As the most recent and balanced survey on the topic available in English Jingjiao will be an indispensable resource for students of global Christianity and missiology Appointments with Bonhoeffer Keith Clements,2022-07-28 Keith Clements sets out how and why Dietrich Bonhoeffer more than seventy five years after his execution by the Nazis still speaks cogently both to the churches and society Beginning with the earlier reception of him as a martyr figure and then as a provocatively original theologian this book argues his relevance to contemporary engagement with public ethics ecumenism truth telling and reconciliation the relation between faith and democracy in a time of political extremisms the issues of national identity signalled by Brexit and the challenge of finding an ethical response to such challenges as the global pandemic Bonhoeffer s perception that living representatively on behalf of others is both the key to who God is as known in Jesus Christ and the basis of all truly human community provides the connecting thread running through these chapters on what it means to believe and be responsible in a fragmenting world Clements also links this thread to the seventeenth century spiritual writer Thomas Traherne and the Catholic Modernist Friedrich von H gel Alchemy and Amalgam Emily Salines,2004 Alchemy and Amalgam explores a relatively un researched area of the Baudelairean corpus his translations from English and relates them to the rest of his works It seeks to establish a link between translational and creative writing arguing for a reassessment of the place of translation in Baudelaire s writing method Rather than a sideline in Baudelaire s creative activities translation is thus shown to be a central form of dual writing at the core of his works Baudelaire s translations from English his constant rewriting of pre existing material including his own the doublets the transpositions d art and the art criticism are all based on an approach to writing which is essentially derivative but also transformative Thus the Baudelairean experiment illustrates the limits of romantic notions of originality creativity and genius reminding us that all writing is intrinsically intertextual It also shows the complexity of translation as a form of creation at the core of modern writing The book is one of the first of its kind to link the study the translational activity of a major writer to his creative writings It is also one of the first to provide an integrated presentation of French 19th century translation approaches and to link them to questions of copyright and authorship in the context of the rise of capitalism and romantic views of creation and genius It offers therefore a new perspective both on translation history and on literary history Alchemy and Amalgam will be of interest to students of translation comparative literature and French studies Early Encounters Delores Bird Carpenter,1995-05-31 Early Encounters contains a selection of nineteen essays from the papers of prominent New England historian antiquarian and genealogist Warren Sears Nickerson 1880 1966 This extensive study of his own family ties to the Mayflower and his exhaustive investigation of the first contacts between Europeans and Native Americans in what is today New England made him an unquestioned authority in both fields The research upon which the text of Early Encounters is based occurred between the 1920s and the 1950s Each of Nickerson s works included in this carefully edited volume is placed in its context by Delores Bird Carpenter she provides the reader with a wealth of useful background information about each essay s origin as well as Nickerson s reasons for undertaking the research Material is arranged thematically the arrival of the Mayflower conflicts between Europeans and Native Americans and other topics related to the history and legends of early European settlement on Cape Cod Early Encounters is a thoughtfully researched readable book that presents a rich and varied account of life in colonial New England Interpreting Bonhoeffer Clifford J. Green, Guy C. Carter, 2013-10-01 In the early twenty first century interest in the life and work of Dietrich Bonhoeffer is increasing significantly In this environment how should we understand and interpret Bonhoeffer Interpreting Bonhoeffer explores the many questions surrounding the complexities of Bonhoeffer s life work and historical context and what they might mean for how we understand and interpret Bonhoeffer now and in the future
