

Mealey's® Litigation Report: Discovery

Mealey's Litigation Report: Discovery provides coverage of all discovery litigation essentials, including how different districts and judges interpret federal discovery rules, procedural changes, the work product, attorney-client and common interest privileges, and discovery abuse. It also focuses on e-discovery, including production of electronic evidence, the cost of digital discovery and who pays for it, and disputes over identifying anonymous online message authors.

Litigation Snapshot

The question of whether the federal government can compel a manufacturer to provide access to a locked electronic device was hotly debated and ultimately unresolved in two recent cases that the government voluntarily dismissed. In Landmark Insurance Co. v. Hilger, the Seventh Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals is considering whether an insurer is permitted to conduct discovery to determine whether a party is an insured when there is purportedly a strong reason to believe otherwise. The Texas Supreme Court in Paxton v. City of Dallas will decide whether untimely assertion of the attorney-client privilege can satisfy a 'compelling reason' burden and rebut a presumption that information held by the government is open to the public.
