Fixer Joe Sacco:

The Fixer Joe Sacco, 2003-12 When bombs are falling and western journalism is the only game left in town fixers are the people who sell war correspondents the human tragedy and moral outrage that makes news editors happy It's dangerous a little amoral and a lot desperate Award winning comic journalist Joe Sacco goes behind the scene of war correspondence to reveal the anatomy of the big scoop He begins by returning us to the dying days of Balkan conflict and introduces us to his own fixer a man looking to squeeze the last bit of profit from Bosnia before the reconstruction begins Thanks to a complex relationship with the fixer Joe discovers the crimes of opportunistic warlords and gangsters who run the countryside in times of war But the west is interested in a different spin on the stories coming out of Bosnia Almost ten years later Joe meets up with his fixer and sees how the new Bosnian government has dealt with these criminals and Joe ponders who is holding the reins of power these days The Fixer and Other Stories Joe Sacco, 2009-10-27 THE COMPLETE SOFTCOVER

COLLECTION OF BOSNIAN WAR SHORT STORIES FROM THE AUTHOR OF PALESTINE AND SAFE AREA GORA DE Using old fashioned pen and paper the award winning cartoonist Joe Sacco reports from the sidelines of wars around the world The Fixer and Other Stories is a new softcover that collects Sacco's landmark short stories on the Bosnian War that previously comprised the hardcover editions of The Fixer and War's End Transcultural Memory Rick Crownshaw, 2016-03-16

Memories are not static or frozen remaining in particular sites or places within and belonging to particular groups cultures or nations rather memory travels Broadly speaking memory has travelled because of the demographic displacements brought about by modernity's extremes slavery colonialism ethnic cleansing and genocide and also because of the trade travel and migration made possible by globalisation Whether social movement is violent exilic migratory emancipatory or oppressive it is accompanied by memory With the movement of people memories of modernity's histories and postmodern legacies meet correspond and often become mutually constitutive Even where memories compete with each other for cultural dominance mutual dialogue and recognition is implicit if not explicit Memories travel through and across cultures and national boundaries a process increasingly facilitated by mass media technologies This collection explores a range of case studies of transcultural memory as well as theorising the mobility of memory as it travels It was originally published as a special issue of the journal parallax The Comics of Joe Sacco Daniel Worden, 2015-07-29 Named a Notable Scholarly Publication of 2015 by the Comics Studies Society Contributions by Georgiana Banita Lan Dong Ann D Orazio Kevin C Dunn Alexander Dunst Jared Gardner Edward C Holland Isabel Macdonald Brigid Maher Ben Owen Rebecca Scherr Maureen Shay Marc Singer Richard Todd Stafford and yvind V gnes The Comics of Joe Sacco addresses the range of his award winning work from his early comics stories as well as his groundbreaking journalism Palestine 1993 and Safe Area to Gora de 2000 to Footnotes in Gaza 2009 and his most recent book The Great War 2013 a graphic history of World War I First in the series Critical Approaches to Comics Artists this edited volume explores Sacco's comics journalism and features established and emerging scholars from comics studies cultural studies geography literary studies political science and communication studies Sacco's work has already found a place in some of the foundational scholarship in comics studies and this book solidifies his role as one of the most important comics artists today Sections focus on how Sacco's comics journalism critiques and employs the standard of objectivity in mainstream reporting what aesthetic principles and approaches to lived experience can be found in his comics how Sacco employs the space of the comics page to map history and war and the ways that his comics function in the classroom and as human rights activism The Comics of Joe Sacco offers definitive exciting approaches to some of the most important and necessary comics today by one of the most acclaimed journalist artists of our time Autobiographical Comics Elisabeth El Refaie, 2012-10-10 A troubled childhood in Iran Living with a disability Grieving for a dead child Over the last forty years the comic book has become an increasingly popular way of telling personal stories of considerable complexity and depth In Autobiographical Comics: Life Writing in Pictures Elisabeth El Refaie offers a long overdue assessment of the key conventions formal properties and narrative patterns of this fascinating genre The book considers eighty-five works of North American and European provenance works that cover a broad range of subject matters and employ many different artistic styles Drawing on concepts from several disciplinary fields including semiotics literary and narrative theory art history and psychology El Refaie shows that the traditions and formal features of comics provide new possibilities for autobiographical storytelling For example the requirement to produce multiple drawn versions of one's self necessarily involves an intense engagement with physical aspects of identity as well as with the cultural models that underpin body image The comics medium also offers memoirists unique ways of representing their experience of time their memories of past events and their hopes and dreams for the future Furthermore autobiographical comics creators are able to draw on the close association in contemporary Western culture between seeing and believing in order to persuade readers of the authentic nature of their stories Frames and Framing in Documentary Comics Johannes C.P. Schmid, 2021-02-24 Frames and Framing in Documentary Comics explores how graphic narratives reframe global crises while also interrogating practices of fact-finding An analog print phenomenon in an era shaped by digitalization documentary comics formulates a distinct counterapproach to conventional journalism In what ways are facts being presented and framed What is documentary honesty in a world of fake news and post-truth politics How can the stories of marginalized peoples and neglected crises be told The author investigates documentary comics in its unique relationship to framing graphic narratives are essentially shaped by a reciprocal relationship between the manifest frames on the page and the attention to the cognitive frames that they generate To account for both the textuality of comics and its strategic use as rhetoric the author combines theories of framing analysis and cognitive narratology with comics studies and its attention toward the medium's visual frames Knowledge and Expertise in International Interventions Berit Bliesemann de Guevara, Roland Kostic, 2018-02-02 Knowledge about violent conflict and international intervention is political It involves power struggles over the objects of knowing problematization silencing how they are known epistemic practices and what interpretations are taken into account in policymaking and implementation This book unearths the politics power and performances involved in the social construction of seemingly neutral concepts such as facts truth and authenticity in knowing about violent conflict and international intervention Contributors foreground problems of physical and social access to information explore practices generating knowledge actors authority and legitimacy and analyse struggles over competing policy narratives A first set of chapters focuses on the social construction of facts truth and authenticity through studies of militia research in the DR Congo politicians on site visits in intervention theatres in the Balkans and Afghanistan and the epistemic practices of Human Rights Watch and comics journalism A second set of contributions analyses the strategic side of knowledge through case studies of diplomatic counterinsurgency in Bosnia and Herzegovina African governments active role in the bunkerization of international aid workers and authoritarian peacebuilding as a challenge to the liberal power knowledge regime in world politics This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Intervention and Statebuilding
