Freeman,2015-10-14 This book aims to put the speciesism debate and the treatment of non human animals on the agenda of critical media studies and to put media studies on the agenda of animal ethics researchers Contributors examine the convergence of media and animal ethics from theoretical philosophical discursive social constructionist and political economic perspectives The book is divided into three sections foundations representation and responsibility outlining the different disciplinary approaches application to media studies and covering how non human animals and the relationship between humans and non humans are represented by the mass media concluding with suggestions for how the media as a major producer of cultural norms and values related to non human animals and how we treat them might improve such representations      Cumulated Index Medicus ,1971

Laboratory Applications in Clinical Pediatrics Irving J. Wolman,1957      Orality and Literacy Kristina Rose Fagan,Natalia Khanenko-Friesen,2011-01-01 Orality and Literacy investigates the interactions of the oral and the literate through close studies of particular cultures at specific historical moments Rejecting the great divide theory of orality and literacy as separate and opposite to one another the contributors posit that whatever meanings the two concepts have are products of their ever changing relationships to one another Through topics as diverse as Aboriginal Canadian societies Ukrainian Canadian narratives and communities in ancient Greece Medieval Europe and twentieth century Asia these cross disciplinary essays reveal the powerful ways in which cultural assumptions such as those about truth disclosure performance privacy and ethics can affect a society s uses of and approaches to both the written and the oral The fresh perspectives in Orality and Literacy reinvigorate the subject illuminating complex interrelationships rather than relying on universal generalizations about how literacy and orality function      *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
