*Accounting Gr12 T/g*english , History Gr12 T/g , Some Developments in Research in Science and Mathematics in Sub-Saharan Africa* Lorna Holtman, 2008 Much attention in late developing countries is given to providing access to studies which allow school leavers to enter science and technology related careers These programmes are driven by the belief that graduates will then substantially contribute to the developmental needs of their countries But is providing access to institutions enough Students in developing countries often come from school environments lacking in resources human physical and financial This book in a number of chapters reviews research related to the crucial dimension of epistemological access to the disciplines of import which students need as much as institutional access in order to improve their chances of success A significant feature of this collection s research studies is that their empirical bases are highly localised covering areas such as research methods access curriculum instruction and assessment and the relevance of science and mathematics education in Zimbabwe Uganda Swaziland South Africa Namibia Malawi Ghana and Lesotho This volume provides invaluable insights and will be of relevance to researchers policy makers and lecturers interested in these research outcomes in Sub Saharan Africa It is the outcome of a doctoral research capacity development project the Graduate Studies in Science Mathematics and Technology Education GRASSMATE

Assessment in Geographical Education: An International Perspective Theresa Bourke, Reece Mills, Rod Lane, 2022-02-27 In recent years there has been increased attention paid to the importance of assessment in Geographical Education the chosen subject for this book Assessment is an important tool for collecting information about student learning and for providing timely data to inform key stakeholders including students teachers parents and policymakers To be effective assessment needs to be valid reliable and fair Validity is about ensuring that we assess what we claim we are assessing Reliability is about measuring performance and understanding in a consistent way Without validity and reliability assessment is unlikely to provide equitable opportunities for students to demonstrate what they know and can do As geography educators it is therefore important that we identify the core concepts and skills in geography that we want students to master We need a clear understanding of what the progression of learning looks like for each concept and skill so we can develop fit for purpose assessments that track and improve student learning While there is a substantial literature on evidence based assessment in secondary school contexts research exploring best practice assessment in geography is rare This is a concern given the distinctive nature of geography and the important role of assessment in the learning process This scholarly collection seeks to address this issue by connecting research in educational assessment with the domain of geography The chapters are written by leading researchers in Geographical Education from across the globe These chapters provide examples of innovation through the collective voices of geography teacher educator scholars from across Australia USA South Korea Germany Switzerland and Singapore What unifies the work in this book is that each chapter focuses on a key feature of the discipline of geography providing scholarly examples of evidence based practices for assessing student s knowledge and skills Resources in Education ,2001-04 Castles in the Air Kenneth Khulekani Khoza,2013-12-27 Castles in the Air is an attempt to open discussions on some often overlooked issues which affect education particularly in rural and township government schools In order to make it a truly South African drama I have drawn from oral tradition by including songs and poems which play an integral part in traditional storytelling There are many folksongs which were included in earlier versions but I decided to remove them in the final version because I did not intend to write a musical There are also some praise poems that I composed for the main character and his father I studied oral tradition and I am confident that the praise poems I composed have all the qualities of the real praise poems and because I could not compose them in English I therefore wrote them in isiZulu with translations in the glossary at the end This Week in South Africa ,1995 Research Anthology on Artificial Neural Network Applications Management Association, Information Resources,2021-07-16 Artificial neural networks ANNs present many benefits in analyzing complex data in a proficient manner As an effective and efficient problem solving method ANNs are incredibly useful in many different fields From education to medicine and banking to engineering artificial neural networks are a growing phenomenon as more realize the plethora of uses and benefits they provide Due to their complexity it is vital for researchers to understand ANN capabilities in various fields The Research Anthology on Artificial Neural Network Applications covers critical topics related to artificial neural networks and their multitude of applications in a number of diverse areas including medicine finance operations research business social media security and more Covering everything from the applications and uses of artificial neural networks to deep learning and non linear problems this book is ideal for computer scientists IT specialists data scientists technologists business owners engineers government agencies researchers academicians and students as well as anyone who is interested in learning more about how artificial neural networks can be used across a wide range of fields Revisiting the Assessment of Second Language Abilities: From Theory to Practice Sahbi Hidri,2018-01-12 This book presents an overview of revisiting the assessment of language abilities It also showcases how the measurement of such constructs can result in negative or positive washback and how outcomes might be conducive to repercussions that decide on the future of many stakeholders The 23 chapters were selected among tens of chapters received from different contexts that addressed the issue of revisiting the assessment of language abilities such as Tunisia Ukraine Algeria Russia KSA Sudan Egypt Canada Kurdistan UK USA Iran Turkey etc These contexts have highlighted the necessity to revisit the different constructs which should be assessed with a clear and straightforward foundation on students learning objectives and their actual language ability To do so most of the chapters present hands on use of relevant statistical tests that might serve in revisiting the construct definition both theoretically and operationally Perhaps the sole and intricate question that the authors of these contributions ask is what it means to revisit the assessment of the construct of individualized language ability and how In addition the book accentuates the momentousness and significance of reflecting on test fairness and validation as the mainspring and backbone for democratization of assessment This book appeals to a broad readership such as English Language Teaching ELT practitioners language teachers students testing organizations policy makers test designers writers of test specifications testing experts researchers program evaluators especially in the Middle East and North Africa MENA as well as other international contexts Pulp, Paper, and Board; Quarterly Industry Report ,1967
