In Loving Memory Diana Monique Soriano,2022-11-21 This book is a reflection on finding my soul mate at a young age and then losing him to the war in Afghanistan It will describe my relationship with Bobby Pagan our deployment to Afghanistan being notified that he was killed in action the healing process and a snippet of how life has been after his loss My book will deliver a clear insight on what it is like to lose a loved one to war the events that took place after the casualty report was received and the journey through healing as I have lived on without my significant other This book will depict some very painful memories but will also entail a beautiful love story that unfortunately had a tragic end When my fiancé was killed in action I went through the motions but I was numb and in utter shock When I was finally ready to accept and face my loss I felt so alone because people felt uncomfortable discussing the topic I want to take my readers on my journey through my eyes have them feel the raw emotions that I felt throughout the process and show them what I went through I also want to shed light on my experience of grief and mourning I want people who have lost a loved one to know that they are not alone and that there is no time limit on grieving If that concept alone can bring some sort of comfort to someone then I'd have accomplished my mission in sharing my story I pray that this book somehow touches the heart of others especially those who have experienced a loss like I have There are no words that can ever make it any better but know that you are not alone

The Lonely Soldier Helen Benedict,2010-04-01 The Lonely Soldier the inspiration for the documentary The Invisible War vividly tells the stories of five women who fought in Iraq between 2003 and 2006 and of the challenges they faced while fighting a war painfully alone More American women have fought and died in Iraq than in any war since World War Two yet as soldiers they are still painfully alone In Iraq only one in ten troops is a woman and she often serves in a unit with few other women or none at all This isolation along with the military's deep seated hostility toward women causes problems that many female soldiers find as hard to cope with as war itself degradation sexual persecution by their comrades and loneliness instead of the camaraderie that every soldier depends on for comfort and survival As one female soldier said I ended up waging my own war against an enemy dressed in the same uniform as mine In The Lonely Soldier Benedict tells the stories of five women who fought in Iraq between 2003 and 2006 She follows them from their childhoods to their enlistments then takes them through their training to war and home again all the while setting the war's events in context We meet Jen white and from a working class town in the heartland who still shakes from her wartime traumas Abbie who rebelled against a household of liberal Democrats by enlisting in the National Guard Mickiela a Mexican American who grew up with a family entangled in L A gangs Terris an African American mother from D C whose childhood was torn by violence and Eli PaintedCrow who joined the military to follow Native American tradition and to escape a life of Faulknerian hardship Between these stories Benedict weaves those of the forty other Iraq War veterans she interviewed illuminating the complex issues of war and misogyny class race homophobia and post traumatic stress disorder Each of these stories is unique yet collectively they add up to a heartbreaking picture of the sacrifices women soldiers are making for this country Benedict ends by showing how these women came to face the truth of war and by offering suggestions for how the military can improve conditions for female soldiers including distributing women more evenly throughout units and rejecting male recruits with records of violence against women Humanizing urgent and powerful The Lonely Soldier is a clarion call for change
