Demystifying the School Psychology Internship Daniel S. Newman, 2013 Newman has used his many years of experience working with interns and field supervisors to create this guide to the school psychology internship process to address these common concerns. He provides a comprehensive overview of the school psychology internship process from start to finish, describing actions that can be taken to promote a high quality dynamic internship experience. Emphasis is placed on the idea that the internship year is a dynamic and formative experience, not a static event, and that interns and supervisors both must be active planners, coordinators, and shapers of the experience.

The Counselor Educator's Guide Jude T. Austin, II, PhD, LPC, LMFT, NCC, CCMHC, Julius A. Austin, PhD, LPC, NCC, 2020-04-03. Note to Readers: Publisher does not guarantee quality or access to any included digital components if book is purchased through a third party seller. A practical roadmap for teaching graduate counseling courses from start to finish. Written for the soon-to-be new or adjunct counselor educator, this is an accessible practical guide to preparing and teaching a graduate counseling course from start to finish. Authored by skilled counselor educators who found themselves woefully unprepared to teach upon obtaining their first faculty positions, the book proffers their hard-earned wisdom to help new faculty confidently take over the role of instructor. The hands-on guide provides convenient overviews of each course and day-to-day content-specific strategies for designing and teaching integral course content that is culturally sensitive and developmentally appropriate. Offering diverse strategies and activities, the book addresses how to teach courses in CACREP accredited programs and covers such topics as identifying theoretical orientation, diagnosis, assessment, and treatment planning, developing therapeutic presence, group leadership, genograms, diversity, basic counseling skills, school shootings, suicide, White privilege, and much more. It addresses course objectives, evaluation of student learning, current research, classroom management, use of technology, do's and don'ts, and advising students. Discussion points and merits of activities are informed by the concept of andragogy, a theory specifically for adult learning. Multicultural and social considerations are woven throughout each chapter. Activities and assignments were developed with feedback from students.
