Metaphysics and Hermeneutics in the Medieval Platonic Tradition Stephen Gersh, 2020-11-09 Metaphysics and Hermeneutics in the Medieval Platonic Tradition consists of twelve essays originally published between 2006 and 2015 dealing with main trends and specific figures within the medieval Platonic tradition Three essays provide general surveys of the transmission of late ancient thought to the Middle Ages with emphasis on the ancient authors the themes and their medieval readers respectively The remaining essays deal especially with certain major figures in the Platonic tradition including pseudo Dionysius the Areopagite Iohannes Scottus Eriugena and Nicholas of Cusa The principal conceptual aim of the collection is to establish the primacy of hermeneutics within the philosophical program developed by these authors in other words to argue that their philosophical activity substantially albeit not exclusively consists of the reading and evaluation of authoritative texts The essays also argue that the role of hermeneutics varies in the course of the tradition between being a means towards the development of metaphysical theory and being an integral component of metaphysics itself In addition such changes in the status and application of hermeneutics to metaphysics are shown to be accompanied by a shift from emphasizing the connection between logic and philosophy to emphasizing that between rhetoric and philosophy The collection of essays fills in a lacuna in the history of philosophy in general between the fifth and the fifteenth centuries It also initiates a dialogue between the metaphysical hermeneutics of medieval Platonism and certain modern theories of hermeneutics structuralism and deconstruction The book will be of special interest to students of the classical tradition in western thought and more generally to students of medieval philosophy theology history and literature CS1094 Handbook of Research on Transmedia Storytelling, Audience Engagement, and Business Strategies Hernández-Santaolalla, Víctor, Barrientos-Bueno, Mónica, 2020-04-24 As media evolves with technological improvement communication changes alongside it In particular storytelling and narrative structure have adapted to the new digital landscape allowing creators to weave immersive and enticing experiences that captivate viewers These experiences have great potential in marketing and advertising but the medium's methods are so young that their potential and effectiveness is not yet fully understood Handbook of Research on Transmedia Storytelling Audience Engagement and Business Strategies is a collection of innovative research that explores transmedia storytelling and digital marketing strategies in relation to audience engagement Highlighting a wide range of topics including promotion strategies business models and prosumers and influencers this book is ideally designed for digital creators advertisers marketers consumer analysts media professionals entrepreneurs managers executives researchers academicians and students 100 Cult Films Ernest Mathijs, Xavier Mendik, 2017-10-23 Some films should never have been made They are too unsettling too dangerous too challenging too outrageous and even too badly made to be let loose on unsuspecting audiences Yet these films from the shocking Cannibal Holocaust to the apocalyptic Donnie Darko from the destructive Tetsuo to the awfully bad The Room from the hilarious This Is Spinal Tap to the campy Showgirls from the asylum of Das Cabinet des Dr Caligari to the circus of Freaks from the gangs of The Warriors to the gangsters of In Bruges and from the flamboyant Rocky Horror Picture Show to the ultimate cool of The Big Lebowski have all garnered passionate fan followings Cult cinema has made tragic misfits monsters and cyborgs such as Edward Scissorhands or Blade Runner's replicants heroes of our times 100 Cult Films explains why these figures continue to inspire fans around the globe Cult film experts Ernest Mathijs and Xavier Mendik round up the most cultish of giallo blaxploitation anime sexploitation zombie vampire and werewolf films exploring both the cults that live hidden inside the underground Nekromantik Caf Flesh and the cult side of the mainstream Dirty Dancing The Lord of the Rings and even The Sound of Music 100 Cult Films is a true trip around the world providing a lively and illuminating guide to films from more than a dozen countries across nine decades representing a wide range of genres and key cult directors such as David Cronenberg Terry Gilliam and David Lynch Drawing on exclusive interviews with some of the world's most iconic cult creators and performers including Dario Argento Pupi Avati Alex Cox Ruggero Deodato Jes's Franco Lloyd Kaufman Harry K mel H G Lewis Christina Lindberg Takashi Miike Franco Nero George A Romero and Brian Yuzna and

Searching the Scriptures Craig A. Evans, Jeremiah J. Johnston, 2015-11-19 This work critically engages the hermeneutical methods used to analyse the New Testament writings so that the lenses through which studies of the texts have been traditionally viewed can be revised Jeremy Hultin contributes an article on the rhetorical use of the chosen citations by Jewish rabbis in their commentary on scripture while Mark Gignilliat writes on the potential implications for viewing Old Testament Scripture in the manner of the early Church exegetes and theologians With these two contributions providing a frame for the other chapters the essays explore a range of topics including the significance of the number 42 in Matthew the study of Wisdom in Matthew the extent to which the four gospels are underlined by Hebrew material if any the use of Hebrew material in shaping New Testament writings and the uses of Scripture in the letters of Paul and the letters to the Hebrews Read separately these articles provide fascinating insights and revisions to established ideas on intertextuality between the Old Hebrew Bible and the New Testament writings Taken together the collection presents a solid argument for the fundamental revision of our current hermeneutical practice in Biblical Studies

Brechtian Cinemas Nenad Jovanovic, 2017-01-30 Explores the influence of Bertolt Brecht's ideas on the practice and study of cinema In Brechtian Cinemas Nenad Jovanovic uses examples from select major filmmakers to delineate the variety of ways in which Bertolt Brecht's concept of epic dialectic theatre has been adopted and deployed in international cinema Jovanovic critically engages Brecht's ideas and their most influential interpretations in film studies from apparatus theory in the 1970s to the presently dominant cognitivist approach He then examines a broad body of films including Brecht's own Mysteries of a Hairdressing Salon 1923 and Kuhle Wampe 1932 Jean Marie Straub and Danièle Huillet's History Lessons 1972 Peter Watkins's La Commune 2000 and Lars von Trier's Nymphomaniac 2013 Jovanovic argues that the role of montage a principal source of artistic estrangement Verfremdung in earlier Brechtian films has diminished as a result of the technique's conventionalization by today's Hollywood and related industries. Operating as primary agents of Verfremdung in contemporary films inspired by Brecht's view of the world and the arts, Jovanovic claims, are conventions borrowed from the main medium of his expression theatre. Drawing upon a vast number of sources and disciplines that include cultural film literature and theatre studies, Brechtian Cinemas demonstrates a continued and broad relevance of Brecht for the practice and understanding of cinema. This book opens up one of the most vaguely and often ill-employed terms within film theory for extremely detailed discussion, providing the most thorough analysis of Brechtianism available to film scholars. It will become a standard reference.
