

Sample Captain Interview Questions

1. Negativity from team members can become a real problem. Tell me your thoughts on how negativity gets started and the effects it can have on a team. What can you do as a leader to help with this problem? What if the negativity is coming from the leader? What are your thoughts on that? What if the negativity is solely towards you as the leader, how will you be able to handle that?
2. Cliques naturally form on teams, and that is to be expected and is ok. But what would you do as a leader when you begin to hear 1 group bad mouthing another group?
3. The talent on cheer teams can be varied and diverse. How will you, as a leader, make sure that everyone feels important, and accepts, respects, and encourages all team members, regardless of talent?
4. What happens when you are tired and you have senioritis ... how do you keep your focus and energy up, especially when everyone around you is just as tired?
5. Scenario Question----- You are calling a cheer at a game and 2 girls get upset and say that they don't know that cheer and don't want to do it. What would you do in this situation?
6. If you are not chosen as captain or co-captain of your team, how will you maintain a leadership role and exhibit a positive attitude throughout the season?
7. As captain, what are your thoughts on the roles of the co-captains? How do you incorporate and involve the co-captains, who are also leaders on the team? How would you handle a disagreement with the co-captains?

Interview Questions For Teachers In Cdc:

Prison Vocational Education and Policy in the United States Andrew J Dick, William Rich, Tony Waters, 2016-08-05 This book explores California's prison system in the context of vocational education reform For prisons in the early twenty first century ideologies of evidence based management meant that reform efforts to change the purpose of prisons from punishment to rehabilitation through vocational education required evidence to justify policy prescriptions Yet who determines what constitutes evidence In political environments solutions are typically pre conceived which means that the nature of the evidence collected is also preconceived As a result key assumptions about outcomes are often wished away to show improvement and be accountable Through a detailed analysis interspersed with stories from the authors experiences behind the wall among California's prison population the authors challenge the nature of evidence based research as used in the prison environment In the process they describe the thorny problems facing reformers

Arts in Criminal Justice and Corrections Amanda Gardner, Laura Caulfield, 2024-11-18 Offering a lively international and interdisciplinary introduction to research on arts programmes in prisons Arts in Criminal Justice and Corrections is the first volume to bring together leading figures from the USA the UK Australia New Zealand and Belgium to explore key methodological approaches and issues through the lens of the researchers themselves Beginning with the original pioneers of research into the arts in corrections in the USA in the 1980s this book highlights the role of researchers in evidencing impact and influencing policy Contributors include those who were themselves once incarcerated and those who have transitioned from practitioner to criminologist Chapters lay the groundwork for discussion on how an important avenue for rehabilitation and re entry can be developed providing a call to action for more research into a field which holds promise for building a more just equitable and inclusive society This book is essential reading for criminologists engaged in prisons corrections and desistance research as well as researchers and practitioners in the arts and rehabilitation

Publics in Action Christopher Kutz, C William Maxeiner Distinguished Professor Law and by Courtesy Philosophy and Political Science Christopher Kutz, 2025-08-27 In Publics in Action Christopher Kutz looks at how people should and do come together to create their shared institutions and the lessons we can learn from one another He argues that a healthy dynamic public takes itself seriously as a subject of action not just the passive beneficiary of a state institution Kutz builds the book around an extended metaphor we should understand ourselves as a public that improvises listening to each other as we riff off shared standards and so creating something new responsive to the scene and the moment
