Interview With A Porn Star English Edition:

Posthuman Worlds Adolfo Cacheiro, 2022-03-03 Posthuman Worlds Roberto Bola o s Narrative and Virtual Reality presents interpretations of several novels and one short story by Roberto Bola o As befits the global setting of most of these narratives they are analyzed from the perspective of global culture and politics Particular attention is paid to transnational European politics as this topic is central to an understanding of the intertwined themes of politics and the law in Bola o s work In Distant Star and Labyrinth these themes exist within the context of a preoccupation with personal identity and ideology Adolfo Cacheiro utilizes psychoanalytic interpretation and philosophical exegesis to clarify the subjective component of this preoccupation in the aforementioned texts The law is also a prominent theme of The Savage Detectives which Cacheiro interprets in relation to mythology One of the most innovative aspects of this book is the discussion of the role of virtual reality in Amulet and 2666 These novels are read as representations of a posthuman world that manifest an intertextual relationship with science fiction In 2666 virtual reality unifies the diverse components of a world system in time and space A phenomenological investigation of this reality supports the conclusion that the principle subject matter of 2666 is a naturalistic theology based on technology Child Protection and Obscenity Enforcement Act and Pornography Victims Protection Act of 1987 United States. Ed Wood, Mad Genius Rob Craig, 2009-09-12 Filmmaker Ed Wood was controversial and critically maligned even labeled the worst director of all time yet he achieved cult status and remains of great interest today This book frames Wood's work such as the cross dressing themed Glen or Glenda and the haphazard Bride of the Monster as reflections of the culture of their era Wood invariably worked with infinitesimal budgets shooting at breakneck speed incorporating plot twists that defied all logic Yet there was a tangible if unfocused thematic thrust to Wood's films which meditate fitfully on gender religion and society revealing a holy trinity of fixations sex death and resurrection Wood's infamous Plan 9 From Outer Space encapsulates the fixations and flaws that were his hallmarks and with 22 other films is explored here A filmography and 47 photographs are included

Maternities Robyn Longhurst, 2012-07-26 Over the past decade geographers have shown a growing interest in the body as an important co-ordinate of subjectivity and as a way of understanding further relationships between people place and space To date however geographers have published little on what is one of if not the most important of all bodies bodies that conceive give birth and nurture other bodies It is time that feminist social and cultural geographers contributed more to debates about maternal bodies This book offers a series of windows on the ways in which maternal bodies influence and are influenced by social and spatial processes Topics covered include women coming out as pregnant at work changing fashion for pregnant women being disabled and pregnant the politics of home versus hospital birth breastfeeding practices that sit outside the norm women who are constructed as bad mothers and e mums mothers who go on line

Women and Sex Tourism Landscapes Erin Sanders-McDonagh, 2016-08-12 Sexual spaces normally inhabited by mostly female sex workers are understood as masculine spaces and positioned for and around male consumers However red light zones and public sex performances in both Thailand and Holland are being explored and visually consumed by female tourists in significant numbers Their presence in red light districts and sexual venues is at odds with the ways in which sexual spaces have normally been positioned Woman and Sex Tourism Landscapes explores female tourists interactions with highly sexualized spaces and places in two very different contexts the Netherlands and Thailand Addressing this incongruence this text explores the ways in which these spaces are constructed and examines the different relations that govern the management of and female tourist interactions with these liminal sexual zones Ethnographic data collected in both countries suggests that far from being male centred spaces the red light districts and associated sexual entertainment venues are very much open to female tourists Drawing on this research the author argues that some women are indeed interested in exploring sexualized zones challenging assumptions about women s involvements with sexual space Thinking specifically about the visual nature of women s sexualized experiences the analysis draws on a range of different theoretical understandings that address power privilege and the gaze An important contribution to a range of debates this book will appeal to students and researchers in tourism geography sociology gender studies and cultural theory
