Second Language Needs Analysis Michael H. Long, 2005-11-03 No language teaching program should be designed without a thorough analysis of the students needs The studies in this volume explore Needs Analysis in the public vocational and academic sectors in contexts ranging from service encounters in coffee shops to foreign language needs assessment in the U S military In each chapter the authors explicitly discuss the methodology they employed and in some cases also offer research findings on that methodology Several studies are task based making the collection of special interest to those involved in task based language teaching Contributions include work on English and other languages in both second and foreign language settings as well as a comprehensive overview of methodological issues in Needs Analysis by the editor

Donald Judd Interviews Donald Judd, 2019-11-12 Donald Judd Interviews presents sixty interviews with the artist over the course of four decades and is the first compilation of its kind It is the companion volume to the critically acclaimed and bestselling Donald Judd Writings This collection of interviews engages a diverse range of topics from philosophy and politics to Judd s insightful critiques of his own work and the work of others such as Mark di Suvero Edward Hopper Yayoi Kusama Barnett Newman and Jackson Pollock The opening discussion of the volume between Judd Dan Flavin and Frank Stella provides the foundation for many of the succeeding conversations focusing on the nature and material conditions of the new art developing in the 1960s The publication also gathers a substantial body of unpublished material across a range of mediums including extensive interviews with art historians Lucy R Lippard and Barbara Rose Judd s contributions in interviews panels and extemporaneous conversations are marked by his forthright manner and rigorous thinking whether in dialogue with art critics art historians or his contemporaries In one of the last interviews he observed Generally expensive art is in expensive chic circumstances it s a falsification The society is basically not interested in art And most people who are artists do that because they like the work they like to do that make art Art has an integrity of its own and a purpose of its own and it s not to serve the society That s been tried now in the Soviet Union and lots of places and it doesn t work The only role I can think of in a very general way for the artist is that they tend to shake up the society a little bit just by their existence in which case it helps undermine the general political stagnation and perhaps by providing a little freedom supports science which requires freedom If the artist isn t free you won t have any art Donald Judd Interviews is co published by Judd Foundation and David Zwirner Books The interviews expand upon the artist s thinking present in Donald Judd Writings Judd Foundation David Zwirner Books 2016 *A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles: part 1. ingredients shepherds fishers and farmers scientists historians and activists And she tries her hand at raising these crops and preparing these dishes Each chapter includes two recipes so readers can be a part of saving these ingredients by purchasing and preparing them Animated by stories yet grounded in historical research Endangered Eating gives readers the tools to support community food organizations and producers that work to preserve local culinary traditions and rare cherished foods before it's too late

The Counter-cinema of the Berlin School Marco Abel, 2013 The contemporary German directors collectively known as the Berlin School constitute the most significant filmmaking movement to come out of Germany since the New German Cinema of the 1970s not least because their films mark the emergence of a new film language The Berlin School filmmakers including Christian Petzold Thomas Arslan Angela Schanelec Christoph Hochhäusler Ulrich Köhler Benjamin Heisenberg Maren Ade and Valeska Grisebach are reminiscent of the directors of the New German Autorenkino and of French cinémas des auteurs of the 1960s This is the first book length study of the Berlin School in any language Its central thesis that the movement should be regarded as a counter cinema is built around the unusual style of realism employed in its films a realism that presents images of a Germany that does not yet exist Abel concludes that it is precisely how these films images and sounds work that renders them political they are political not because they are message driven films but because they are made politically thus performing a redistribution of the sensible a direct artistic intervention in the way politics partitions ways of doing and making saying and seeing Marco Abel is Professor of English and Film Studies at the University of Nebraska Lincoln
