History's Queer Stories Natalie Marena Nobitz, 2018-10-04 Critical analysis of the dramatisation of homosexuality in British fiction about the Second World War is noticeable only by its relative absence from the field Whereas feminist literary criticism has broadened the canon of war fiction to include narratives by and about women queer scholars have seldom focused on literary representations of homosexuality during the war Natalie Marena Nobitz closes a glaring gap in the critical attention of four novels dealing with the disruption of gender roles and institutionalised heteronormativity Walter Baxter's Look Down in Mercy 1951 Mary Renault's The Charioteer 1953 Sarah Waters' The Night Watch 2006 and Adam Fitzroy's Make Do and Mend 2012

Stories of the Soviet Experience Irina Paperno, 2011-01-15 Beginning with glasnost in the late 1980s and continuing into the present scores of personal accounts of life under Soviet rule written throughout its history have been published in Russia marking the end of an epoch In a major new work on private life and personal writings Irina Paperno explores this massive outpouring of human documents to uncover common themes cultural trends and literary forms The book argues that diverse as they are these narratives memoirs diaries notes blogs assert the historical significance of intimate lives shaped by catastrophic political forces especially the Terror under Stalin and World War II Moreover these published personal documents create a community where those who lived through the Soviet era can gain access to the inner recesses of one another's lives This community strives to forge a link to the tradition of Russia's nineteenth century intelligentsia thus the Russian intelligentsia emerges as an additional implicit subject of this book The book surveys hundreds of personal accounts and focuses on two in particular chosen for their exceptional quality scope and emotional power Notes about Anna Akhmatova is the diary Lidia Chukovskaia a professional editor kept to document the day to day life of her friend the great Russian poet Anna Akhmatova Evgeniia Kiseleva a barely literate former peasant kept records in notebooks with the thought of crafting a movie script from the story of her life The striking parallels and contrasts between these two documents demonstrate how the Soviet state and the idea of history shaped very different lives and very different life stories The book also analyzes dreams most of them terror dreams recounted in the diaries and memoirs of authors ranging from a peasant to well known writers a Party leader and Stalin himself History Paperno shows invaded their dreams too With a sure grasp of Russian cultural history great sensitivity to the men and women who wrote and a command of European and American scholarship on life writing Paperno places diaries and memoirs of the Soviet experience in a rich historical and conceptual frame An important and lasting contribution to the history of Russian culture at the end of an epoch Stories of the Soviet Experience also illuminates the general logic and specific uses of personal narratives Shakespeareana Appleton Morgan, Charlotte Endymion Porter, 1891 The Complete Reiki Handbook Walter Lubeck, 1998-01-26 This book describes the secrets and possible uses of this subtle healing force New Literary and Linguistic Perspectives on the German Language, National Socialism, and the Shoah Peter Davies, Peter J. Cohen, 1994-10-26 Elevations is a series of closely related essays on the ground-breaking philosophical and theological work of Emmanuel Levinas and Franz Rosenzweig two of the twentieth century's most important Jewish philosophers Focusing on the concept of transcendence Richard A Cohen shows that Rosenzweig and Levinas join the wisdom of revealed religions to the work of traditional philosophers to create a philosophy charged with the tasks of ethics and justice He describes how they articulated a responsible humanism and a new enlightenment which would place moral obligation to the other above all other human concerns This elevating pull of an ethics that can account for the relation of self and other without reducing either term is the central theme of these essays Cohen also explores the ethical philosophy of these two thinkers in relation to Nietzsche Husserl Heidegger Buber Sartre and Derrida The result is one of the most wide-ranging and lucid studies yet written on these crucial figures in philosophy and Jewish thought the Beach Hannah Freed-Thall, 2023-03-07 Winner 2024 MSA Book Prize Modernist Studies Association At the beach bodies converge with the elements and strange treasures come to light Departing from the conventional association of modernism with the city this book makes a case for the coastal zone as a surprisingly generative setting for twentieth century literature and art An unruly and elusive confluence of human and more than human forces the seashore is also a space of performance a stage for loosely scripted improvisatory forms of embodiment and togetherness The beach Hannah Freed Thall argues was to the modernist imagination what mountains were to Romanticism a space not merely of anthropogenic conquest but of vital elemental and creaturely connection With an eye to the peripheries of capitalist leisure Freed Thall recasts familiar seaside practices including tide pooling beachcombing gambling and sunbathing as radical experiments in perception and sociability Close readings of works by Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf Claude McKay Samuel Beckett Rachel Carson and Gordon Matta Clark among others explore the modernist beach as a queer refuge a precarious commons a scene of collective exhaustion and endurance and a visionary threshold at the end of the world Interweaving environmental humanities queer and feminist theory and cultural history Modernism at the Beach offers new ways of understanding twentieth century literature and its relation to ecological thought
