Culture, Community, and Educational Success Crystal Polite Glover, Toby S. Jenkins, Stephanie Troutman, 2018-11-09 Many Black Latinx multiracial and ethnically diverse first generation college students turned PhDs tie their academic success achievements and ability to navigate the difficult terrain of higher education back to the critical experiences and lessons learned in their home lives and through their cultural backgrounds For them culture matters This book offers an opportunity for an anti deficit and positive examination of Black Latinx and multiracial culture and its role in creating educational efficacy among academics of color Through personal narrative educational and learning theory creative writing poetry this hybrid text examines the cultural path to the doctorate Transformative practice should be guided by an understanding of how an appreciation of a faculty member's cultural life and social experiences can be used to establish a healthy environment that will better appreciate, engage, and retain faculty of color. Along these lines, this text also considers how cultural life and social experiences translate into pedagogy, mentorship, and value as faculty of color. iRules Janell Hofmann, 2014-05-06

Tech enlightenment and empowerment for parents so they can create iRules contracts for their own families. As Janell Burley Hofmann, mother of five, wrapped her thirteen-year-old's iPhone on Christmas Eve, she was overwhelmed by questions: Will my children learn to sit and wonder without Googling? Should I know their password for online accounts? Will they experience the value of personal connection without technology? To address her concerns, she outlined boundaries and expectations in a contract for her son to sign upon receiving his first cell phone. When Hofmann's editor at the Huffington Post posted the contract, now known as iRules, it resonated on a massive scale and went viral, resulting in a tsunami of media coverage and requests. It quickly became apparent that people across the country were hungry for more. In iRules, Hofmann provides families with the tools they need to find a balance between technology and human interaction through a philosophy she calls Slow Tech Parenting. In the book, she educates parents about the online culture, tweens and teens enter the minute they go online, exploring issues like cyberbullying, friend fail, and sexting, as well as helping parents create and modify their own iRules contract to fit their families' needs. iRules will also help parents figure out when to unplug and how to stay in sync with the changing world of technology while teaching their children self-respect, integrity, and responsibility. Building Community to Center Equity and Justice in Mathematics Teacher Education Courtney Koestler, Eva Thanheiser, 2025-06-20

Make Rich Math Instruction Come to Life Online. In an age when distance learning has become part of the new normal, educators know that rich, remote math teaching involves more than direct instruction, online videos, and endless practice problems on virtual worksheets. Using both personal experience and those of teachers in real K-12 online classrooms, distance learning mathematics veteran Theresa Wills translates all we know about research-based, equitable, rigorous, face-to-face mathematics instruction into an online venue. This powerful guide equips math teachers to build students' agency, identity, and strong math communities. Promote mathematical thinking, collaboration, and discourse. Incorporate rich mathematics tasks and assign meaningful homework and practice. Facilitate engaging online math instruction using virtual manipulatives and other concrete learning tools. Recognize and address equity and inclusion challenges associated with distance learning. Assess mathematics learning from a distance. With examples across the grades, links to tutorials and templates, and space to reflect and plan, Teaching Math at a Distance offers the support, clarity, and inspiration needed to guide teachers through teaching math remotely without sacrificing deep learning and academic growth. Living My Dream Trish Booth, 2014-04-03
