Reid, 2016-12-01 This book poses a major revisionist challenge to 20th century British labour history aiming to look beyond the Marxist and Fabian exclusion of working class experience notably religion and self help in order to exaggerate labour movement class cohesion Instead of a forward march to secular state socialism the research presented here is devoted to a rich diversity of social movements and ideas In this collection of essays the editors establish the liberal pluralist tradition with the following chapters covering three distinct sections Part One Other

Forms of Association covers subjects such as trade unions the Co operative Party women s community activism and Protestant Nonconformity Part Two Other Leaders covers employer Edward Cadbury Trades Union Congress leader Walter Citrine and the electricians leader Frank Chapple Part Three Other Intellectuals considers G D H Cole Michael Young and left libertarianism by Stuart White Readers interested in the British Labour movement will find this an invaluable resource

History of the Pauline Corpus in Texts, Transmissions and Trajectories Chris S. Stevens,2020-06-15 In History of the Pauline Corpus in Texts Transmissions and Trajectories Chris S Stevens examines the Greek manuscripts of the Pauline texts from P46 to Claromontanus Previous research is often hindered by the lack of a systematic analysis and an indelicate linguistic methodology This book offers an entirely new analysis of the early life of the Pauline corpus Departing from traditional approaches this text critical work is the first to use Systemic Functional Linguistics which enables both the comparison and ranking of textual differences across multiple manuscripts Furthermore the analysis is synchronically oriented so it is non evaluative The results indicate a highly uniform textual transmission during the early centuries The systematic analysis challenges previous research regarding text types Christological scribal alterations and textual trajectories
