The Glaciers of Equatorial East Africa S. Hastenrath, 2012-12-06 The Membership and Programs of the IGY Participating Committees M. Nicolet, 2013-10-22 Annals of the International Geophysical Year Volume 9 The Membership and Programs of the IGY Participating Committees contains a list of the programs as prepared at the beginning of the IGY The number of programs increased during the IGY preparatory period when the number of Committees amounting to 22 in 1953 increased to 35 in 1954 40 in 1955 50 in 1956 and 67 when the IGY began on July 1 1957 The list of Committees shows the growth of the participation in the IGY This book is divided into 67 chapters Each chapter covers the contributions and research works in the IGY of each country This book is of value to researchers in the allied fields of geophysics Global Security Watch—Kenya Donovan C. Chau, 2010-04-15 An original study on the strategic dimensions of Kenya encompasses in depth examinations of the Kenya Armed Forces political and military relations with key neighboring countries and Kenya's crucial strategic relationship with the United States Kenya plays a key role in the conflicts between the Western and Islamic worlds making a grasp of its politics international relations military services and security status an important study Global Security Watch Kenya provides a thorough introduction to the security issues facing the modern day nation offering policymakers researchers and general readers a window into this globally important sub Saharan country This expert analysis is the first to examine the strategic dimensions of Kenya and the political and military circumstances that have shaped the country Following an overview of Kenya's history geography and politics the book explores the development of the Kenya Armed Forces Kenya's critical relations and security issues in Greater East Africa particularly with Tanzania Uganda and Somalia and the country's strategic relations with the United States Drawing on objective historical and contemporary research interviews with influential figures and his own first hand experiences the author underscores Kenya's enduring strategic importance and offers recommendations on policy decisions Mountain Research and Development, 1992 Non-Motorized Transport Integration into Urban Transport Planning in Africa Winnie V. Mitullah, Marianne Vanderschuren, Melekidzedek Khayesi, 2017-07-14 What challenges do pedestrians and cyclists face in cities of the developing world What opportunities do these cities have to provide for walking and cycling Based on in depth research conducted in Cape Town South Africa Dar es Salaam Tanzania and Nairobi Kenya this book explores these questions by presenting work on walking and cycling travel behaviour the status of road safety in these cities as well as an analysis of the infrastructure for walking and cycling and the workings of the institutions responsible for planning for these modes The book also presents case studies relating to particular opportunities and challenges such as the development and evaluation of walking bus interventions and the opportunities micro simulation of pedestrian interventions offers within a data scarce environment Non motorized Transport Integration into Urban Transport Planning in Africa demonstrates that transport and urban planning remains situated in a logic of automobile dependent transport planning and global city development This logic of practice does not pay adequate attention to walking and cycling It argues that a significant shift in both policy as well as political commitment is needed so as to prioritize walking and cycling as strategies for sustainable transport policy in urban Africa This book will be a key text for practitioners and policy makers working in planning transport policy and urban development in Africa as well as students and scholars of African studies development studies urban geography transport studies and sustainable development Church, State and Society in Kenya Galia Sabar, 2012-12-06 This volume offers a debate on the role of Christianity in post colonial Kenya charting the role of the church state and society in the transformation of Kenya and the relationship between the three It shows how the church initiated health education and economic activities showing it to be a major instrument of transformation An Uncertain Age Paul Ocobock, 2017-03-27 In twentieth century Kenya age and gender were powerful cultural and political forces that animated household and generational relationships They also shaped East Africans contact with and influence on emergent colonial and global ideas about age and masculinity Kenyan men and boys came of age achieving their manhood through changing rites of passage and access to new outlets such as town life crime anticolonial violence and nationalism And as they did the colonial government appropriated masculinity and maturity as means of statecraft and control In An Uncertain Age Paul Ocobock positions age and gender at the heart of everyday life and state building in Kenya He excavates in unprecedented ways how the evolving concept of youth motivated and energized colonial power and the movements against it exploring the masculinities boys and young men debated and performed as they crisscrossed the colony in search of wages or took the Mau Mau oath Yet he also considers how British officials own ideas about masculinity shaped not only young African men s ideas about manhood but the very nature of colonial rule An Uncertain Age joins a growing number of histories that have begun to break down monolithic male identities to push the historiographies of Kenya and empire into new territory The Higher Education Institutions Handbook , 2012 The Michigan Alumnus , 1986 In volumes 1-8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual East Africa Seminar and Workshop on Remote Sensing of Natural Resources and Environment , 1975 Proceedings of the Sixteenth Annual Climate Diagnostics Workshop, Held at the Dept. of Atmospheric Sciences, University of California, Los Angeles, Los Angeles, California , 1992 The Rotarian: July 2015 , Princeton Alumni Weekly , 1971 Wangari Maathai Tabitha Kanogo, 2020-04-07 Wangari Muta Maathai is one of Africa s most celebrated female activists Originally trained as a scientist in Kenya and abroad Professor Maathai returned to her home country of Kenya with a renewed political consciousness There she began her long career as an activist campaigning for environmental and social justice while speaking out against government corruption In 2004 Maathai was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for her leadership of the Green Belt Movement a conservation effort that resulted in the restoration of African forests decimated during the colonial era In this biography Tabitha Kanogo follows Wangari Maathai from her modest rural Kenyan upbringing to her rise as a national figure campaigning for environmental and ecological
