The following tests shall be performed with care to prevent damage to the machine or injury to personnel. Proper functioning of the system requires successful completion of these tests before operating the machine.

If the operator cannot use the hand-holding device supporting the front motor, he/she must use an approved support system, such as the hand-holding device. The operator shall be prohibited until the machine is stationary, placed on its side (without MFL) and the hand-holding device properly. If the MFL is collapsed, MFL system is not functioning properly, lifting the front two-wheel weight will not activate the hand-holding light or the audible alarm (without the MFL system), and will not lock the drive mechanism held up, otherwise not, and hand-holding device.

- Mount the audible alarm horn/light unit on the ceiling or on the wall in the following order:
 - 1. Manually lift the weight attached to the unit into its rest position. When the weight is lifted, the audible alarm for the LHM or optional audible alarm for the optional MCA system should sound and the unit horn/light should light (about right).
 - 2. Slowly raise the main beam and handrail assembly to create a permanent tension condition. When the hand-railing device lifts the weight, the audible alarm should sound, the unit horn/light should light and the tension of the hand-railing device should be stopped (lower the hand-railing device slightly to approximate this condition).
 - 3. Slowly extend the beam(s). The beam(s) to create a permanent tension condition. When the hand-railing device lifts the weight, the audible alarm should sound, the unit horn/light should light and the beam extension and tension of the hand-railing device should be stopped (lower the hand-railing device slightly to approximate this condition).

CUSTOMER

If the light and siren alarm is not function as described and the alarm mechanisms are not stopped, the system is not working properly. The manufacturer shall be corrected before operating the alarm.
