

Flowers for Algernon Illustrating Metaphors/Similes

Directions: Ray Bradbury uses a great deal of figurative language (metaphors, similes, personifications) throughout Flowers for Algernon. Some of these lines are incredibly visual. Your job for this assignment is to choose two of your favorite similes or metaphors from the book and illustrate them.

1. Consider what image you get in your mind when you read these lines.
2. Brainstorm ways that you can put this into a drawing, cartoon, collage etc.
3. Take a piece of paper (folded in half) and illustrate both of your choices.
4. Neatly fill the entire square with your image and color.
5. The quote should be neatly written or typed to fit at the bottom of the page.

If you're stuck on what metaphors/similes to select, here are a few to get you started:

1. "I'm the Queen bee, safe in the hive: you will be the drone, the traveling bee" (Bradbury 87).
2. "Delicately, like the petals of a flower, light the first page, light the second page: each becomes a black butterfly. Beautiful, eh?" (Bradbury 72).
3. "The electric humbler moved like a graying mouse on the pillow, touched by her hand" (Bradbury 48).
4. "His wife stretched on the bed, uncovered and cold, like a body displayed on the lid of a tomb, her eyes fixed to the ceiling by invisible threads of steel, immovable" (Bradbury 12).
5. "Her face, turned to him now, was fragile milk-crystal with a soft and constant light in it" (Bradbury 7).

After selecting and illustrating your metaphors and similes, answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper. Be sure to answer the questions for each of the similes/metaphors you selected.

1. What two things is Bradbury comparing here?
2. What are some of the ways these two things are similar?
3. What are some of the ways these two things are different?
4. How does that help you see _____ in a new way?
5. Rewrite the simile/metaphor and replace it with the author's literal meaning.
6. How does the mood of the line created by the figurative language change when replaced with literal words?

Seo-Young Chu, 2011-01-15 In culture and scholarship science fictional worlds are perceived as unrealistic and altogether imaginary Seo Young Chu offers a bold challenge to this perception of the genre arguing instead that science fiction is a form of high intensity realism capable of representing non imaginary objects that elude more traditional realist modes of representation Powered by lyric forces that allow it to transcend the dichotomy between the literal and the figurative science fiction has the capacity to accommodate objects of representation that are themselves neither entirely figurative nor entirely literal in nature Chu explores the globalized world cyberspace war trauma the Korean concept of han and the rights of robots all as referents for which she locates science fictional representations in poems novels music films visual pieces and other works ranging within and without previous demarcations of the science fiction genre In showing the divide between realism and science fiction to be illusory Do Metaphors Dream of Literal Sleep sheds new light on the value of science fiction as an aesthetic and philosophical resource one that matters more and more as our everyday realities grow increasingly resistant to straightforward representation
