London Fragments Rüdiger Görner, 2015-05-15 Meet Shakespeare Heine and Hogarth south of the river find Virginia Woolf in Bloomsbury discovers Blake and Trollope in Westminster happen on the Carlyles in Chelsea come across John Keats in beautiful Hampstead and search for Bacon and Hanif Kureishi in the London suburbs Sophocles, the plays and fragments Sophocles, 1887 Philosophizing ad Infinitum Marcel Conche, 2014-05-08 One of France's preeminent historians of philosophy Marcel Conche has written and translated more than thirty-five books and is recognized for his groundbreaking and authoritative work in Greek philosophy as well as on Montaigne. In Philosophizing ad Infinitum one of his most remarkable and daring books Conche articulates a unique and powerful understanding of nature inclusive of humanity as infinite in time and space ever self-renewing eternal and beyond complete understanding or control. In today's world the notion of infinity is at the core of the crisis humanity faces understanding nature. For the last two hundred years economies have been running at full speed fueled by the implicit belief that natural resources are infinite however it is clear that they are not and that humanity needs to radically rethink the foundations of environmental and economic systems. Conche seeks to begin this rethinking illustrating along the way insightful and sometimes unorthodox ideas about Plato Aristotle Epicurus Montaigne Nietzsche Bergson and others Cesti: The Extant Fragments (Die Griechischen Christlichen Schriftsteller Der Ersten Jahrhunderte) Sextus Julius Africanus, 2007 Iulius Africanus has rightly been called the Father of Christian Chronography. His world chronicle is one of the few works of Christian literature pioneering a new genre. Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages mainly articulated their reflection on history in the form of the world chronicle. The work has not been preserved in its entirety the extant fragments have to be laboriously pieced together from the works of later authors. To date there has not been a critical edition of this material and the edition in use today dates back nearly 200 years. J. M. Routh 1814. This new edition in the GCS series closes an old gap in the programme of this series and at the same time marks a new beginning because this is the first edition ever in this series to be published with an English translation. The edition establishes a completely new foundation for our knowledge of Early Christian historical thinking and in addition provides an important component in our understanding of an important epoch the Imperial Crisis of the 3rd century in which the new world of Late Antiquity began to develop out of the Hellenic Roman heritage The Complete Works of Sir Richard Francis Burton Richard Francis Burton, 2023-12-27 The Complete Works of Sir Richard Francis Burton presents a remarkable compendium of the diverse and irreplaceable contributions of one of the Victorian era's most enigmatic explorers and linguists. Burton's literary style is characterized by meticulous observation vivid descriptions and an unyielding curiosity about the cultures he encountered offering readers an immersive insight into the worlds of travel anthropology and sexuality. His works spanning poetry travel narratives and translations not only reflect the complexities of 19th-century imperial attitudes but also challenge them presenting alternative perspectives on colonial encounters and human behavior. Sir Richard

Francis Burton was not merely an explorer he was a polymath steeped in languages religions and the arts with a lifelong fascination for understanding the other His upbringing in a cultured household fostered a passion for exploration and scholarship while his personal quests such as his expeditions to discover the sources of the Nile reveal an individual unafraid to push societal boundaries This intellectual background undoubtedly shaped the eclectic tapestry of his writings The Complete Works of Sir Richard Francis Burton is an essential addition to the libraries of those interested in exploration cultural studies and Victorian literature This collection invites readers to delve into the multifaceted voice of a man who was as controversial as he was visionary encouraging a critical engagement with the legacies of exploration and representation

Manuscripts from Zidanku, Changsha (Hunan Province) Volume II Li Ling, 2025-01-22 This book is the second in a two volume monograph on the Zidanku Silk Manuscripts Looted in 1942 from the Warring States period Chu tomb at Zidanku Changsha the manuscripts date to the turn from the 4th to the 3rd centuries BCE and are the only pre Imperial Chinese manuscripts on silk found to date The monograph represents the culmination of almost four decades of research by Professor Li Ling of Peking University Volume One addresses the circumstances of the discovery of the Zidanku Silk Manuscripts and the subsequent provenance history in China and the United States Volume Two provides the first complete transcription of the Zidanku Silk Manuscripts in their entirety together with reproductions of the original manuscripts The transcription is accompanied by comprehensive annotations with full paleographic and philological analysis of the texts An English translation of the texts has been added by Professor Donald Harper For the first time the Zidanku Silk Manuscripts can be read as a single corpus constituting a unique source of information that complements and goes beyond what is known from transmitted texts The Zidanku Silk Manuscripts reveal a range of cosmological and religious ideas and shed new light on the formation of correlative thought in the Warring States period This volume represents the continuation of the important study that Professor Li Ling devoted to the history of the discovery of the Chu manuscripts from Zidanku It includes the photographic reproduction transcription and detailed study of three manuscripts and several fragments identified thanks to the efforts spanning more than four decades by the greatest expert on hemerological texts of the Warring States period Marianne Bujard Professor cole Pratique des Hautes tudes Paris This beautifully produced volume with full color plates of all the manuscript fragments does vivid justice to the meticulous painstaking and rigorous decades of masterful work that Li Ling the world s foremost authority on the subject has poured into the reconstruction decipherment and interpretation of these important textual artifacts much of which is brought to light here for the first time Scott Cook Tan Chin Tuan Professor of Chinese Studies National University of Singapore The collaboration of the two most eminent experts of Chinese paleography Li Ling in Beijing and Donald Harper in Chicago is again a felicitous demonstration of what Sino American cooperation can achieve Lothar Ledderose Senior Professor Institute of East Asian Art History Heidelberg University This volume compiles and assesses with immaculate accuracy and critical acumen all extant relevant material that Li Ling uncovered during his over forty year pursuit for answers in and out of China among archaeologists historians paleographers and conservation scientists a true model of interdisciplinary and international research and an inspiration to all scholars in early China studies Jenny F So Senior Curator for Early Chinese Art 1990 2000 National Museums of Asian Art Smithsonian Institution Professor Li Ling s splendid book offers to the Western public the first ever comprehensive monograph on the Chu Silk Manuscripts from Zidanku This masterful research to which he has devoted more than forty years is not only a minute investigation the most extensive of its kind on the famous manuscripts but also a very valuable contribution to our understanding of the intellectual life of the Late Warring States period Alain Thote Emeritus Professor cole Pratique des Hautes tudes Paris Complemented by high quality color pictures old photographs hand facsimiles of the manuscripts as well as an updated bibliography and a comprehensive index of the ancient graphs this English edition should undoubtedly be regarded as the new reference edition for these excavated texts Olivier Venture Professor cole Pratique des Hautes tudes Paris

Fragments of an Unfinished War Françoise Mengin, 2015-01-09 The Republic of China that retreated to Taiwan in 1949 maintains its de facto if not de jure independence yet Beijing has consistently refused formally to abandon the idea of reunifying Taiwan with China As well as growing military pressure the PRC s irredentist policy is premised on encouraging cross Straits economic integration Responding to preferential measures Taiwanese industrialists have invested massively in the PRC often relocating their businesses there Fragments of a nation torn apart by contradictory claims these entrepreneurs are vectors of a new form of unification imposed by the main land promoted but postponed on the island by the Nationalist Party and rejected by Taiwanese pro independence parties Within what can be described as an unfinished civil war socio economic dynamics remain embedded in conflicts over sovereignty Trans national actors have freed themselves from security constraints thereby benefiting economically from a reformist China and ultimately restructuring politics in Taiwan itself and in so doing relations between Beijing and Taipei A fictitious depoliticization has governed the opening of the Sino Taiwanese border in order to postpone any resolution of the sovereignty issue Mengin s startlingly original book highlights the competing and fragmented elements within one of the world s most intractable territorial disputes Richard Cantillon's Essay on the Nature of Trade in General Richard Cantillon, 2015-05-15 The Essay on the Nature of Trade in General was written in the early 1730s by Richard Cantillon a speculator and banker who had made a vast fortune during the Mississippi and South Sea Bubbles of 1719 20 The work remained unpublished for about two decades but when it appeared posthumously in Paris in 1755 the book was immediately recognised as a brilliant genre defining contribution to the then emerging intellectual discipline of political economy A degree of mystery has always surrounded the publication of the Essay Cantillon died under mysterious circumstances in 1734 but the work survived in various manuscript forms This edition offers an innovative mode of presentation displaying for the very first time all print and manuscript versions of the Essay in parallel This allows the reader to appreciate different formulations of Cantillon s seminal contributions to a range of topics including his circular flow analysis monetary theory theories of value and distribution the role of the entrepreneur spatial economics and international trade Richly annotated and accompanied by a detailed study of the historical background of Cantillon s writings this new scholarly edition offers many new insights into this early masterpiece of economic theory
