

FRANKENSTEIN CHAPTER 1

The novel itself begins with a series of letters from the explorer Robert Walton to his sister, Margaret Saville. Walton is the captain of a ship headed on a dangerous voyage to the North Pole.

1. In the first letter, he tells his sister of the preparations leading up to his departure and he also tells of the desire to accomplish "some great purpose".
2. In the second letter, Walton bemoans his lack of friends. He feels lonely and isolated, too sophisticated to find comfort in his shipmates and too uneducated to find a sensitive soul with whom to share his dreams. The second letter introduces the idea of loss and loneliness, as Walton complains that he has no friends with whom to share his triumphs and failures, no sensitive ear to listen to his dreams and ambition.
3. In the third letter, Walton tells his sister that his ship has set sail, he has full confidence and he will achieve his aim.
4. In the fourth letter, the ship gets stuck between a huge chunk of ice, and Walton and his men spot a sledge driven by a giant creature about half a mile away. The next morning, they see another sledge driven by dogs. All but one of the dogs are dead, and the man who was driving the sledge is weak and hungry. Despite his condition, the man refuses to board the ship until Walton tells him that he is heading north.
The stranger spends two days recovering, nursed by the crew, before he can speak. The crew is burning with curiosity, but Walton prevents his men from burdening the stranger with questions. As time passes, Walton and the stranger become friends, and the stranger eventually consents to tell Walton his story.
At the end of the fourth letter, Walton states that the visitor will commence his narrative the next day; Walton's framing narrative ends and the stranger's begins. In addition to setting the scene for the telling of the stranger's narrative, Walton's letters introduce an important character whose story parallels Frankenstein's.

Exercise

1. When he writes the letter to inform his sister of the imminent trip he is in Saint Petersburg which is in Russia, on 11 December.
2. In the letters Robert writes that he has no one to talk to, no friends. From the letters we can deduce that the only familiar he is still in contact with is his sister Margaret to whom he certainly cares a lot, because he is the only person with whom he shares his insecurities and fears. Before his trip reassures his sister saying that before leaving he will go to Archangel to rent a ship and a crew, to sail north pole. Robert got the money for the trip from a small family inheritance.
3. Walton is happy to have a crew; however, he is not completely happy because he knows he will have no one to talk to either in Archangel or at sea.
4. Walton's ship was surrounded by ice, it could not move and they were very far from land. Looking at the horizon, they saw a gigantic man driving a sledge pulled by dogs going north.
