Grade 12 History June 2014 Memo:

Crimea, Global Rivalry, and the Vengeance of History Hall Gardner, 2016-04-30 Gardner examines the causes and consequences of Russia's annexation of Crimea. By analyzing alliance formations and the consequences of other annexations in world history, the book urges an alternative US NATO European Japanese strategy toward both Russia and China in the effort to prevent a renewed arms race if not global war.

Encounters Old and New in World History Alan Karras, Laura J. Mitchell, 2017-06-30 This collection of essays asserts the specific value of world history research and teaching, showing how the field contributes to the larger historical profession and offering concrete suggestions to develop more interaction between the academy and the public. The twelve contributors, each with their own academic areas of interest, are experienced scholars and classroom teachers. Uniting them together in this volume is their professional relationship with Jerry H. Bentley. 1949-2012 This shared connection served as a catalyst to showcase Bentley's enduring legacy: a commitment to investigating large-scale questions with detailed empirical evidence that explains the human condition, documenting both patterns of similarity and difference in ways that account for regional and temporal variations. The volume continues Bentley's meticulous attention to world historical methods, focus on scale, cross-cultural encounter, comparison, periodization, critical geography, and interdisciplinarity. Encounters Old and New in World History responds to provocations that Jerry Bentley tendered in his scholarship and through his professional activities. Contributors interrogate the institutional settings, disciplinary proclivities, methodological choices, and diverse source bases of world history research and teaching. Several essays address the ways in which present-day concerns influence research on local and global scales. Other essays pay particular attention to the production and circulation of knowledge across regional, temporal, and class boundaries, as well as between the academy and the wider public. Claiming the centrality of globally informed and focused approaches to historical inquiry, researchers continue the conversations that Bentley carried on through his own scholarship, teaching, editing of the Journal of World History, participating in public forums, and contributing to public discussions about the place of history in understanding today's global integration. The stakes involved in asking questions about the shared history of humankind continue to increase in the current era of intensified globalization. It is incumbent upon scholars with the skills to work across linguistic, geographic, temporal, and disciplinary boundaries to show the ways that cross-cultural encounters happened historically and to point out how such interactions play out in the institutions, classrooms, and public debates where historical interpretations are created and shared.

The Future of the Soviet Past Anton Weiss-Wendt, Nanci Adler, 2021-10-05 In post-Soviet Russia, there is a persistent trend to repress, control, or even co-opt national history. By reshaping memory to suit a politically convenient narrative, Russia has fashioned a good future out of a bad past. While Putin's regime has acquired nearly complete control over interpretations of the past, The Future of the Soviet Past reveals that Russia's inability to fully rewrite its Soviet history plays an essential part in its current political agenda. Diverse contributors consider the many ways in which public narrative shapes Russian culture from cinema television and music to museums legislature and education as well as how patriotism reflected in these forms of culture implies a casual acceptance of the valorization of Stalin and his role in World War II The Future of the Soviet Past provides effective and nuanced examples of how Russia has reimagined its Soviet history as well as how that past still influences Russia's policymaking

Holding Together John Shattuck, Sushma Raman, Mathias Risse, 2022-05-31 A bold new assessment of the multipronged attack on rights in the United States and how to push back An overwhelming majority of Americans agree that rights are essential to their freedom and that rights today are severely threatened The promise of rights has been reimagined at pivotal moments in American history from the American Revolution to the Civil War to the Civil Rights Movement Can today become another time of transformation Holding Together is about the promise of rights as a source of American identity the struggle to realize rights by countless Americans to whom the promise has been denied or not fulfilled the hijacking of rights by politicians who seek power by dividing and polarizing and the way forward in which rights can bring Americans together instead of tearing them apart Drawing on a series of town hall meetings with representative groups of citizens across the country discussing their concerns over rights new national opinion polls from all demographic groups and political perspectives conducted in 2020 and 2021 and extensive research Holding Together is a road map for an American rights revival John Shattuck Sushma Raman and Mathias Risse present a comprehensive account of the current state of rights in the United States and concrete recommendations to policy makers and citizens on how to reclaim them

Flight Risk Forrest L. Marion, 2018-10-15 From the 1920s Afghanistan maintained a small air arm that depended heavily upon outside assistance Starting in 2005 the United States led an air advisory campaign to rebuild the Afghan Air Force AAF In 2007 a formal joint combined entity led by a U S Air Force brigadier general began air advisor work with Afghan airmen Between 2007 and 2011 these efforts made modest progress in terms of infrastructures personnel and aircraft accessions and various training courses But by 2010 advisors increasingly viewed AAF command and control C2 as a problem area that required significant improvement if a professional air force was to be built In the spring of 2011 major institutional changes to AAF C2 procedures were being introduced when nine U S air advisors were killed The attack was the worst single incident loss of U S Air Force personnel in a deployed location since 1996 and the worst insider attack since 2001 From the day of that tragic event the cultural chasm between Afghanistan and the West became more apparent This dilemma continues with no end in sight to an air advisory mission of uncertain long term value

Roy Lichtenstein Julie Wolfe, 2023-06-06 The first book length study to examine the materials and techniques used in the fabrication and painting of the American pop artist Roy Lichtenstein's outdoor sculpture Vibrant color was essential to the paintings of the American pop artist Roy Lichtenstein 1923 1997 and when he began exploring the creation of outdoor sculpture in the late 1970s vivid hues remained an important part of his artistic vocabulary Today preserving these remarkable works after they have endured decades in outdoor environments around the world is an issue of pressing concern This abundantly illustrated volume is based on extensive archival research of Lichtenstein's studio materials interviews with his assistants and a thorough technical analysis of the sculpture Three Brushstrokes The book concludes with a chapter showing various options for the care conservation and restoration of his sculptural works making this an essential resource for conservators curators and others interested both in the iconic artist and modern sculpture in general

Breaking Point Rebecca Schwartz Greene, 2023-01-03 WINNER SOCIETY FOR MILITARY HISTORY DISTINGUISHED BOOK AWARDS FIRST BOOK This book informs the public for the first time about the impact of American psychiatry on soldiers during World War II Breaking Point is the first in depth history of American psychiatry in World War II Drawn from unpublished primary documents oral histories and the author's personal interviews and correspondence over years with key psychiatric and military policymakers it begins with Franklin Roosevelt's endorsement of a universal Selective Service psychiatric examination followed by Army and Navy pre and post induction examinations Ultimately 2.5 million men and women were rejected or discharged from military service on neuropsychiatric grounds Never before or since has the United States engaged in such a program In designing Selective Service Medical Circular No 1 psychiatrist Harry Stack Sullivan assumed psychiatrists could predict who might break down or falter in military service or even in civilian life thereafter While many American and European psychiatrists questioned this belief and huge numbers of American psychiatric casualties soon raised questions about screening's validity psychiatric and military leaders persisted in 1942 and 1943 in endorsing ever tougher screening and little else Soon families complained of fathers and teens being drafted instead of being identified as psychiatric 4Fs and Blacks and Native Americans among others complained of bias A frustrated General George S Patton famously slapped two malingering neuropsychiatric patients in Sicily a sentiment shared by Marshall and Eisenhower though they favored a tamer style Yet psychiatric rejections evacuations and discharges mounted While psychiatrist Roy Grinker and a few others treated soldiers close to the front in Tunisia in early 1943 this was the exception But as demand for manpower soared and psychiatrists finally went to the field and saw that combat itself not predisposition precipitated breakdown leading military psychiatrists switched their emphasis from screening to prevention and treatment But this switch was too little too late and slowed by a year long series of Inspector General investigations even while numbers of psychiatric casualties soared Ironically despite and even partly because of psychiatrists' wartime performance plus the emotional toll of war postwar America soon witnessed a dramatic growth in numbers popularity and influence of the profession culminating in the National Mental Health Act 1946 But veterans with PTSD not recognized until 1980 were largely neglected
