Crashed Adam Tooze, 2018-08-07 WINNER OF THE LIONEL GELBER PRIZE A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK OF 2018 ONE OF THE ECONOMIST'S BOOKS OF THE YEAR A NEW YORK TIMES CRITICS TOP BOOK An intelligent explanation of the mechanisms that produced the crisis and the response to it One of the great strengths of Tooze's book is to demonstrate the deeply intertwined nature of the European and American financial systems The New York Times Book Review From the prizewinning economic historian and author of Shutdown and The Deluge an eye opening reinterpretation of the 2008 economic crisis and its ten year aftermath as a global event that directly led to the shockwaves being felt around the world today We live in a world where dramatic shifts in the domestic and global economy command the headlines from rollbacks in US banking regulations to tariffs that may ignite international trade wars But current events have deep roots and the key to navigating today's roiling policies lies in the events that started it all the 2008 economic crisis and its aftermath Despite initial attempts to downplay the crisis as a local incident what happened on Wall Street beginning in 2008 was in fact a dramatic caesura of global significance that spiraled around the world from the financial markets of the UK and Europe to the factories and dockyards of Asia the Middle East and Latin America forcing a rearrangement of global governance With a historian's eye for detail connection and consequence Adam Tooze brings the story right up to today's negotiations actions and threats a much needed perspective on a global catastrophe and its long term consequences Novel Therapeutic Target and Drug Discovery for Neurological Diseases, Volume II Rui Liu, Zhuorong Li, George Barreto, Yong Cheng, Liu Qing-Shan, 2025-03-12 This Research Topic is the second volume of the Research Topic Novel Therapeutic Target and Drug Discovery for Neurological Diseases Please see the first volume here Neurological diseases represent heterogeneous disorders that involve complex pathological alterations with only a few effective treatments therefore there is a great need for the development of novel therapeutic targets and therapies There are more than six hundred neurological disorders including dementia cerebrovascular diseases mental illness brain tumor and infection caused central diseases all arising from disruption to the central nervous system Researchers are attempting to identify promising targets and potential drug candidates from new biological techniques and pharmacological animal studies Thus novel target discovery and mechanism elucidation as well as the development of small molecule entities natural compounds and polypeptides for the treatment of neurological dysfunction may offer exciting clues for novel therapeutic strategies to halt or mitigate the course of neurological diseases

Dismantled Leanne Kang, 2020 Dismantled is an accessible critical look at the devolution of local power in the Detroit public school system The author examines the rise of charter schools and other private enterprises the eclipse of control from local actors to new players and influences and the invaluable lessons the experience holds for urban school systems nationwide Kang provides a compelling narrative of this shift in power beginning in the 1980s and leading to the breakup of Detroit Public Schools in 2016 and concludes with a discussion on the implications and dilemmas of regime change The text looks at such questions as What happens when local actors no longer have a voice in what happens to their schools What are the consequences when teachers and administrators cede control to private interests and cease to participate in decisionmaking What are some ways to redirect public schooling towards democracy in the aftermath of dismantling the Progressive Era system Book Features Examines how a series of policies dismantled the Detroit Public Schools resulting in new educational characteristics such as the marketization and privatization of schooling Offers an historical perspective on market based reform including why and how race and politics serve as barriers to reform Explains the role and influence of Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos in the Detroit events Provides a framework from which to envision the next steps for public education in the 21st century At Risk for Neuropsychiatric Disorders: An Affective Neuroscience Approach to Understanding the Spectrum Raymond C. K. Chan, Morten L. Kringelbach, 2016-11-17 Neuropsychiatric disorders such as schizophrenia bipolar disorder depression anxiety disorders and other mental disorders constitute about 13% of the global burden of disease surpassing both cardiovascular disease and cancer The total cost worldwide of these diseases is estimated to exceed 100 million disability adjusted life years In order to begin to address this important problem the present Research Topic brings together a group of leading affective neuroscience researchers to present their state of the art findings using an affective neuroscience approach to investigate the spectrum of neuropsychiatric disorders from patients to those at risk They focus on different aspects of the emotional and social cognitive disturbances which are core features of neuropsychiatric disorders While progress has been slow over last couple of decades we are finally beginning to glimpse some of the underlying neural mechanisms of the emotional and social cognitive disturbances in patients and those at risk With the technological advances in affective neuroscience and neuroimaging presented in this volume we hope that progress will be much swifter in the coming years such that we can provide better care for patients and those at risk
