National Library of Medicine News National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1978 News, 1983 Civil Society in Zimbabwe Mandlenkosi Mpofu, Dion Nkomo, Kirk Helliker, 2025-09-01 This book considers the historical and spatial dimensions of civil society in Zimbabwe's Matabeleland region an area suffering from severe development and democratic deficits over many decades Transcending an organisational conception of civil society and a simplistic state civil society dualist understanding it recognises the dynamic character of civil society as a social space inclusive of less formalised associational forms of collective life as well as the colonial character and legacies of civil society both analytically and empirically This book facilitates a nuanced understanding of the specificities of the social political and economic evolution of Matabeleland in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe and the region's troubled relations with the central state Historically it traces civil society in Matabeleland from the region's resistance against the colonial settler state to contemporary struggles for justice given the unresolved Gukurahundi legacy Civil society is depicted as constituted by a set of complex and shifting struggles for justice not simply between Matabeleland and the central state but also internally within Matabeleland along multiple fault lines including class and culture The relevance of understanding civil society in Matabeleland for Zimbabwe and Africa more widely is brought to the fore The book will be of interest and value to scholars of civil society politics and democratisation across the African continent The Presidency in the Era of 24-Hour News Jeffrey E. Cohen, 2010-11-16

The Presidency in the Era of 24 Hour News examines how changes in the news media since the golden age of television when three major networks held a near monopoly on the news people saw in the United States have altered the way presidents communicate with the public and garner popular support How did Bill Clinton manage to maintain high approval ratings during the Monica Lewinsky scandal Why has the Iraq war mired George Bush in the lowest approval ratings of his presidency Jeffrey Cohen reveals how the decline of government regulation and the growth of Internet and cable news outlets have made news organizations more competitive resulting in decreased coverage of the president in the traditional news media and an increasingly negative tone in the coverage that does occur He traces the dwindling of public trust in the news and shows how people pay less attention to it than they once did Cohen argues that the news media's influence over public opinion has decreased considerably as a result and so has the president's ability to influence the public through the news media This has prompted a sea change in presidential leadership style Engaging the public less to mobilize broad support presidents increasingly cultivate special interest groups that often already back the White House's agenda This book carries far reaching implications for the future of presidential governance and American democracy in the era of new media

News Literacy Across the Undergraduate Curriculum Amy M. Damico, Melissa M. Yang, 2024-08-08 Librarians and faculty members offer perspectives workshop initiatives and classroom strategies to assist readers in increasing news literacy on their campus We are living in a time when the evolving media ecosystem requires individuals to pay critical attention to content developing ways to make sense of information data news reports and research Undergraduate college student learners in all disciplines must possess skills to critically identify assess and challenge the ideas to which they're being exposed Both librarians and faculty know this but they may not know how to develop and implement information literacy material In this valuable collection reference librarians instructional librarians and undergraduate faculty across disciplines share best practices for establishing relationships with each other and for increasing students news and information literacy skills Contributions include perspectives on pedagogy reflections on successes and challenges and reports of research on student learning This book teaches librarians and faculty how to implement news and information literacy content across the curriculum to empower students to be smarter more critical and more engaged news consumers News Reporting Carl Nelson Warren, 1929

Conflicting Narratives of Crime and Punishment Martina Althoff, Bernd Dollinger, Holger Schmidt, 2020-07-18 This book illustrates the importance of conflicting narratives in understanding and dealing with crime based on a variety of cutting edge research Offenders tell stories about crime and punishment as do policemen judges and defence lawyers but so do politicians and the media Each tells them very differently and only some stories are believed while others are rejected as implausible leading to conflict This book explores how these conflicts are carried out and what relationships exist between often unquestioned master narratives and sometimes loud sometimes silent counter narratives These are questions of central importance for criminology which have thus far received little attention This edited collection is international and interdisciplinary in scope providing empirical insights from such diverse contexts as social media newspapers comics police interrogations social and criminal justice settings and museum exhibitions By including contributions from a wide spectrum of academic disciplines and using different methodological approaches it is of particular interest to students and researchers in criminology and sociology as well as to scholars of socio legal studies Law Book News ,1894 The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Translation Sameh Hanna,Hanem El-Farahaty,Abdel-Wahab Khalifa,2019-12-09 Translation related activities from and into Arabic have significantly increased in the last few years in both scope and scale The launch of a number of national translation projects policies and awards in a number of Arab countries together with the increasing translation from Arabic in a wide range of subject areas outside the Arab World especially in the aftermath of the Arab Spring have complicated and diversified the dynamics of the translation industry involving Arabic The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Translation seeks to explicate Arabic translation practice pedagogy and scholarship with the aim of producing a state of the art reference book that maps out these areas and meets the pedagogical and research needs of advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as active researchers Action of the governors under 39 U.S.C., section 3625, and suporting record in the matter of postal rate and fee increases, 1971 United States.
