Missouri Schools ,1949 Organizational Report Cards William T. Gormley Jr.,David L. Weimer,1999-03 In recent years consumers professional organizations government officials and third party payers have become increasingly concerned about how to assess the quality of the services provided by organizations in both the private and the public sectors One new approach is the organizational report card which compares the performance of organizations such as public schools colleges hospitals and HMOs This book offers the first comprehensive study of such instruments It discusses the circumstances under which they are desirable alternatives to other policy instruments such as regulation how they should be designed who is likely to use them and for what purpose and what role if any government should have in their creation Informed by cases drawn from education health and other policy areas this book develops a conceptual framework for analyzing these issues It explores the tradeoffs in measuring performance the methods of communicating results effectively to mass and elite audiences and the ways in which organizations respond to the data gathered A Score Card and Standards for the Records and Reports of City School Systems George Drayton Strayer,Nickolaus Louis Engelhardt,1923 Schoolhouse Shams Peter Downs,2013 Written by a parent and school board member who first embraced many of the ideas of the modern school reform movement Schoolhouse Shams lays bare much of the mythology and misinformation that underpin many of the failed school reform policies of the last decade Many of the top strategies of the highly publicized school reform movement already have been tried out in St Louis with disastrous results Along with demonstrating the failure of school reform prescriptions to improve education the experience of St Louis demonstrates that the ideological premise of the reform movement that a focus on providing opportunities for private profit taking will necessarily improve schools is both wrong and conflicts with the ideals of democracy accountability and justice Missouri School Journal ,1896 The Civics Report Card Lee F.
