Judaism Shmuley Boteach,2012-11-22 Does it mean nothing at all that we are spiritual beings What does one of the world s oldest religions have to say The author tackles these important issues in a freshly argued provocative book that will stir debate Asian American Literature in Transition, 1850-1930: Volume 1

Josephine Lee,Julia H. Lee,2021-06-17 The years between 1850 and 1930 witnessed the first large scale migration of peoples from East Asia and South Asia to North America and the emergence of the US as an imperial power in the Pacific This period also produced the first instances of Asian North American writing theater and film This exciting collection examines how the many literary and cultural works from this period approached questions of migration exclusion and identity Covering an extensive ranges of topics including anticolonialist writing the erotics of queer modernist poetry interracial desire and the racial gaze in silent film the book shows the diverse and multi ethnic nature of literary and cultural production at a crucial period in modern formations of race as well as literary and cultural aesthetics

New Jews David L. Reznik,2015-12-03 New Jews is the first comprehensive study of American Jewish identity in Hollywood movies of the new millennium Despite the argument that we live in a post racial society with supposedly new Jewish characters emerging on the big screen this book details how traditional racial stereotypes of American Jews persist in popular films from the first decade of this century In clear and readable prose the book offers an innovative and penetrating look at dozens of American Jewish meddling matriarchs neurotic nebbishes pampered princesses and scheming scumbags from 21st century film whether Hollywood blockbusters like Meet the Fockers and Sex and the City or indie favorites like Garden State and Kissing Jessica Stein Throughout the book famous American Jewish characters played by the likes of Jim Carrey Tom Cruise Anne Hathaway Kate Hudson Scarlett Johansson Sarah Jessica Parker Adam Sandler and Ben Stiller are discussed with the ultimate conclusion that movies today are marked less by the emergence of new Jews than by the continued but dynamic and transformed presence of the same old stereotypes

Allied Encounters Marisa Escolar, 2019-07-02 Honorable Mention for the 2019 American Association for Italian American Book Prize 20 21st Centuries Allied Encounters uniquely explores Anglo American and Italian literary cinematic and military representations of World War II Italy in order to trace critique and move beyond the gendered paradigm of redemption that has conditioned understandings of the Allied Italian encounter The arrival of the Allies global forces in an Italy torn by civil war brought together populations that had long mythologized one another yet liberation did not prove to be the happy ending touted by official rhetoric Instead of a honeymoon the Allied Italian encounter in cities such as Naples and Rome appeared to be a lurid affair where the black market reigned supreme and prostitution was the norm Informed by the historical context as well as by their respective traditions these texts become more than mirrors of the encounter or generic allegories Instead they are sites in which to explore repressed traumas that inform how the occupation unfolded and is remembered including the Holocaust the American Civil War and European colonialism as well as individual traumatic events like the massacre of the Fosse Ardeatine and the mass civilian rape near Rome by colonial soldiers

Gender and Violence Against Political Actors Elin Bjarnegård, Pär Zetterberg, 2023-05-19 This edited volume brings together U S and European scholars within political science comparative politics international relations and other related disciplines and practitioner fields to offer theoretical and methodological perspectives on gender and political violence and to encourage conversation across subfields and disciplines on the topic

EBOOK: Gender and the Changing Face of Higher Education: A Feminized Future? Carole Leathwood, Barbara Read, 2008-12-16 A notable feature of higher education in many countries over the last few decades has been the dramatic rise in the proportion of female students Women now outnumber men as undergraduate students in the majority of OECD countries fuelling concerns that men are deserting degree level study as women overtake them both numerically and in terms of levels of achievement The assertion is that higher education is becoming increasingly feminized reflecting similar claims in relation to schooling and the labour market At the same time there are persistent concerns about degree standards with allegations of dumbing down This raises questions about whether the higher education system to which more women have gained access is now of less value both intrinsically and in terms of labour market outcomes than previously This ground breaking book examines these issues in relation to higher education in the UK and globally It provides a thorough analysis of debates about feminization asking To what extent do patterns of participation continue to reflect and re construct wider social inequalities of gender social class and ethnicity How far has a numerical increase in women students challenged the cultures curriculum and practices of the university What are the implications for women men and the future of higher education Drawing on international and national data theory and research Gender and the Changing Face of Higher Education provides an accessible but nuanced discussion of the feminization of higher education for postgraduates policy makers and academics working in the field

Exploding Aesthetics , 2021-11-08 Today many visual artists are giving the cold shoulder to the static isolated concept of visual art and searching instead for novel dynamic connections to different image strategies Because of that visual art and aesthetics are both forced to reconsider their current positions and their traditional apparatus of concepts In that process many questions surface To mention a few Could the characteristics of an artistic image and its specific manner of signification be determined in a world which is entirely aesthetized What would be the consequences of a variety of image strategies for aesthetic experience Would it be possible to develop a form of cultural criticism by means of artistic activities in a culture awash in images In order to answer such questions aesthetics as a philosophy of art needs to transform its field into a critical philosophy of topical visual culture As an impetus to such a reinterpretation of the visual working area the L B Series organized three symposia evenings under the title Exploding Aesthetics in cooperation with De Appel Center for Contemporary Art Amsterdam Besides the presentations and discussions from these symposia this volume includes various arguments positions and statements in both articles and interviews by a variety of visual artists designers advertising professionals theorists and curators The participants are Mieke Bal Annette W Balkema Peg Brand Experimental Jetset Liam Gillick Jeanne van Heeswijk Martin Jay KesselsKramer Friedrich Kittler Maria Lind Wim Michels Nicholas Mirzoeff Planet Art Joke Robaard Annemieke Roobeek Remko Scha Rob Schr der Henk Slager Richard Shusterman Pauline Terreehorst Wolfgang Welsch and Marie Lou Witmer

The "Man" Question in International Relations Marysia Zalewski, Jane Parpart, 2019-04-05 Originally published in 1998 The Man Question in International Relations looks the prevalence of man in the world of international relations The book argues that focusing on women as a way of changing the gender of international relations can position women as the problem The authors of this book suggest that the problem is not woman but man Rather than highlighting the absences and presence of women in the theories and practices of international relations the authors concentrate on questioning the practices of masculinities the hegemony of men and the subject of man In this way they hope to destabilize the field in ways that adding women and stirring has not

Memories and Postmemories of the Partition of India Anjali Roy, 2019-07-12 This book examines the afterlife of Partition as imprinted on the memories and postmemories of Hindu and Sikh survivors from West Punjab to foreground the intersection between history memory and narrative It shows how survivors script their life stories to reinscribe tragic tales of violence and abjection into triumphalist sagas of fortitude resilience industry enterprise and success At the same time it reveals the silences stutters and stammers that interrupt survivors narrations to bring attention to the untold stories repressed in their consensual narratives By drawing upon current research in history memory narrative violence trauma affect home nation borders refugees and citizenship the book analyzes the traumatizing effects of both the tangible and intangible violence of Partition by tracing the survivors journey from refugees to citizens as they struggle to make new homes and lives in an unhomely land Moreover arguing that the event of Partition radically transformed the notions of home belonging self and community it shows that individuals affected by Partition produce a new ethics and aesthetic of displacement and embody new ways of being in the world An important contribution to the field of Partition studies this book will be of interest to researchers on South Asian history memory partition and postcolonial studies
