Aden,2007-07-25 Popular culture stories found in comic strips TV programs magazines and movies gain their popularity by evoking our desires and anxieties Aden offers a well constructed argument that creating a sense of place and with it a sense of personal identity and community serves as an important enticement for many popular cultures works Aden handles contemporary theory deftly and does an excellent job of identifying many of the tensions present in 20th century America Quarterly Journal of Speech Stories encountered at the movies on television and in popular magazines are treated as reflections of the popular culture Believing that the American experience has been guided by a normative narrative or grand narrative that constitutes the American dream Aden holds that stories can be used to extract the rules of a narrative determine the direction and identify conceptions of the promised lands for a culture Critical Studies in Mass Communication Are You In The House Alone? Amanda Reyes,2017-04-05 Beginning in the 1960s through its heyday in the 1970s and beyond the telefilm remains an important cultural artefact masquerading as disposable entertainment Made specifically for the small screen within the tight constraints of broadcasting standards what these humble movies lacked in budget and star appeal they made up for in other ways Often they served as an introduction to genre films particularly horror mirroring their theatrical counterparts with a focus on sinister cults women in prison haunted houses and even animals in revolt They were also a place to address serious contemporary issues drugs prostitution sexual violence and justice albeit in a cosy domestic environment Production of telefilms continues to this day but their significance within the history of mass media remains under discussed Are You in the House Alone seeks to address this imbalance in a series of reviews and essays by fans and critics alike It looks at many of the films the networks and names behind them and also specific genres everything from Stephen King adaptations to superheroes to true life dramas So kickback and crack open the TV guide once more for the event that is the Movie of the Week The Midnight Zephyr: Stories of Youth and the Fantastic Wayne Kyle Spitzer,2022-06-02 Jonesing for a drive in theater and a hotrod El Camino It s the dawn of the 1970s and everything is changing The war in Vietnam is winding down So is the Apollo Space Program The tiny northwestern city of Spokane is about to host a World s Fair But the Watergate Hearings and the re entry of Skylab and the eruption of Mount Saint Helens are coming as are killer bees and Ronald Reagan Enter The Kid a panic prone hyper imaginative boy whose life changes drastically when his father brings home an astronaut white El Camino As the car s deep seated rumbling becomes a catalyst for the Kid s curiosity his ailing over protective mother finds herself fending off questions she doesn t want to answer But her attempt to redirect him on his birthday only arms him with the tool he needs to penetrate deeper a pair of novelty X Ray Specs and as the Camino muscles them through a decade of economic and cultural turmoil the Kid comes to believe he can see through metal clothing skin to the center of the universe itself where he imagines something monstrous growing spreading reaching across time and space to threaten his very world The Boy Who Fell to Earth | A Novel About Coming

Want to go for a ride The Dragons of Autumn Wayne Kyle Spitzer, 2022-06-18 From

The Dragons of Autumn May became June which became July which became August and I didn't see Ghost although I left him something every day something which was always gone when I returned at least at first By September however he'd stopped taking what I left him completely nor would he appear when called and I began to worry That would have been about the time I started getting serious with Jenny holding hands at the indoor skating rink kissing for the first time in the balcony at The Muppet Movie as well as my first growth spurt all in the legs which made me feel gangly and insecure but also made me taller than Jen which I liked and which she liked too It was also around the time the murders started happening and what became known as the Comet's Tail Mangler at first just in the local paper but soon the national ones as well and finally the NBC Nightly News started making waves across the country Nor was that the only national news story to touch me for my parents missing flight was back in the spotlight also primarily because the business tycoon who had resumed the search after the Coast Guard and Federal Aviation Administration abandoned it had now given up too For Shad and my grandma it was case closed again For me it was the beginning of a season of denial that would last clear through September and into the school year a season in which I became more convinced than ever that my parents were still alive Denial can be a powerful thing my mother had once said I believe it was in the context of someone's rumored drug and/or alcohol addiction but for me in that fear addled fall of 1979 it became something more something akin to an obsession or even a psychosis something which rendered me deaf dumb and blind to the reports of wreckage having been spotted by a private flight out of Honolulu in the wee hours of Christmas morning to the reports of the victims of the Mangler having been mauled as if by an animal mauled and partially eaten Indeed I had even begun looking forward to introducing them to Jenny when they were finally picked up from Gilligan's Island which is how I imagined their circumstances had even selected a date New Year's 1980 the day the call would come The day the news would be announced that survivors had been found and that they were in good health the day we would drive to the airport in Grandma's black GTO and watch my parents descend the steps like soldiers returning from Vietnam their faces tanned from the South Pacific their necks adorned with leis In the end however the New Year brought news of a different sort though news that struck home regardless for the latest victim of the Mangler turned out to be Stuart Dalton himself decorated veteran local hero for his service in Vietnam and a close personal friend of our parents so close that we were invited to his funeral where I ended up in line behind his widow for the viewing of the casket a casket which had been draped with a veil to prevent scrutiny of the body Even now some forty years later it would be difficult to describe what I felt that day as Song Li offered her final words and her husband lay hidden beneath the gauze and the reality of what had occurred what had been occurring ever since the death of the convict came crashing down as Song said goodbye to her darling Stuart and I said hello to reality for the first time in months possibly even since my parents had disappeared and knew though the thought of it tore me down the middle what had to be done If that was I could even find the portal If that was I could find my friend
