

FAKE NEWS

Fake News in America Anthony R. DiMaggio, 2023-08-10 The term fake news became a buzzword during Donald Trump s presidency yet it is a term that means very different things to different people This pioneering book provides a comprehensive examination of what Americans mean when they talk about fake news in contemporary politics mass media and societal discourse and explores the various factors that contribute to this such as the power of language political parties ideology media and socialization By analysing a range of case studies across war political corruption climate change conspiracy theories electoral politics and the Covid 19 pandemic it demonstrates how fake news is a fundamentally contested phenomenon and how its meaning varies depending on the person using the term and the political context It provides readers with tools to identify talk about and resist fake news and emphasizes a need for education reform with an eye toward promoting critical thinking and information literacy different ways of knowing being and doing Public History of Education. A Brief Introduction Gianfranco Bandini, 2024-02-06 Is historical knowledge important for education How can we build a shared historical knowledge with schools communities and education professionals The book responds to these questions by suggesting the public history approach as applied in education and more generally to all professions that are based on human relations The public history of education refers directly to North American experiences but at the same time it is part of a process of European cultural acceptance and re elaboration that has one of its main points of reference in the Italian Public History Association The objective is not to make history for the general public but to make public history with all those interested in a collaborative and participative context in the quest for meaningful knowledge directly related to the current and challenging needs of our society Combating Online Hostile Posts in Regional Languages during Emergency Situation Tanmoy

Chakraborty, Kai Shu, H. Russell Bernard, Huan Liu, Md Shad Akhtar, 2021-04-08 This book constitutes selected and revised papers from the First International Workshop on Combating On line Ho st ile Posts in Regional Languages dur ing Emerge ncy Si tuation CONSTRAINT 2021 Collocated with AAAI 2021 held as virtual event in February 2021 The 14 full papers and 9 short papers presented were thoroughly reviewed and selected from 62 qualified submissions The papers present interdisciplinary approaches on multilingual social media analytics and non conventional ways of combating online hostile posts A Brief History of History Jeremy Black, 2023-08-22 In A Brief History of History acclaimed historian Jeremy Black seeks to reinvigorate and redefine our ideas about history The stories we tell about the past are a crucial aspect of all cultures However while the traditional storytelling process what we think of as history in the proper sense is useful it is also misleading not least because it leads to the repetition of bias and misinformation Black suggests that the conventional idea of history and historians is constructed too narrowly as it fails to engage with the broad nature of lived experience By focusing on a singular idea or story within the history being explored we fail to understand the interconnectivity of the everyday experience A Brief History of History challenges accepted norms of the historical perspective and offers a view of human history that will surprise many and perhaps infuriate some But above all it is a history of historians written for this moment in time a time when the traditional Eurocentric approach to history now appears wholly inappropriate Social Media

Analytics, Strategies and Governance Hamid Jahankhani, Stefan Kendzierskyj, Reza Montasari, Nishan Chelvachandran, 2022-08-18 Social media has spread rapidly on the global stage driving consumers attention and influence both consciously and subconsciously Whilst this type of platform may have been initially designed as a tool for open communication and expression it is also being utilized as a digital tool with widescale use cases The intelligence explosion information overload and disinformation play a significant part regarding individual group and country perceptions The complex nature of this data explosion created an increasing demand and use of artificial intelligence AI and machine learning ML to help provide big insights to big data AI and ML enable the analysis and dissemination of vast amounts of data however the ungoverned pace at which AI and autonomous systems have been deployed has created unforeseen problems Many algorithms and AI systems have been trained on limited or unverified datasets creating inbuilt and unseen biases Where these algorithmic tools have been deployed in high impact systems there are documented occurrences of disastrous decision making and outcomes that have negatively impacted people and communities Little to no work had been conducted in its vulnerability and ability to exploit AI itself So AI and autonomous systems whilst being a force for societal good could have the potential to create and exacerbate societies greatest challenges This is a cohesive volume that addresses challenging problems and presents a range of innovative approaches and discussion
