Globalisation, Employment and Education in Sri Lanka Angela W. Little, Siri T. Hettige, 2014-05-23 Since the late 1970s Sri Lanka has undergone a socio economic transformation from protectionism towards economic liberalisation and increasing integration into the world economy Through a systematic comparison of these periods of economic change 1956 1977 and 1977 to the present Angela W Little and Siri T Hettige examine the impact of this transformation on education youth employment and equality of opportunity in Sri Lanka The book charts Sri Lanka's shift from a predominantly agricultural economy to one dominated by services and manufacturing a reduction in unemployment rising educational and occupational levels expectations and achievements and a reduction in poverty In turn it reveals a growing role for the private sector and foreign interests in post secondary education and a modest growth in private education at the primary and secondary levels as well as widening social disparities in access to qualifications training and skills The Sri Lankan experience of and engagement with globalisation has been tempered by a long running ethnic conflict that hindered economic and social development and diverted considerable public funds into defence and war Now that the war is won the challenge is how to invest in human resource development and the fulfilment of the expectations of youth from all ethnic and social groups This challenge requires serious policy analysis the generation of more state revenues the reallocation of existing public resources and a political commitment to the winning of a sustainable peace and stability This book makes an important contribution to the broader international literature on the implications of globalisation for education policy and practice and to the interaction of exogenous and endogenous forces for educational change It deals with the tension between the high social demand for education and the growing demand for specialised skills in a changing economy As such it has a wide interdisciplinary appeal across education policy and politics Asian education South Asian society youth policy sociology of education political economy of social change and globalisation Broadcasting in Sri Lanka Nandana Karuṇānāyaka,1990 The Teaching of Geography B. C. Wallis,2013-09-12 Originally published in 1967 this book addresses the teaching of various kinds of geography to secondary school students The Library in Colleges of Commerce and Technology Gordon H. Enjoying the Tune of Term: An Emotional Symphony within Gce Commerce Question

In some sort of eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of instant conversation, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony produced by the prepared term frequently disappear in to the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, set within the pages of Gce Commerce Question a wonderful fictional value overflowing with fresh thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a masterful composer of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts viewers on a psychological trip, well unraveling the concealed melodies and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this moving analysis, we shall examine the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
