

Imperialism DBQ

Background

During the 19th and 20th centuries (1800s-1900s), European nations used their overwhelming technological superiority to create massive colonial empires. These empires included parts of Africa, Asia, the Middle East, and the islands of the Pacific. Some were so large it was said that the sun never set upon them, meaning that there was always at least one part of their territory in daylight. The creation of empires through the seizure of a country or territory by a stronger country is called imperialism.

Directions

Analyze each of the six documents and answer the questions that follow.

Document 1

SOURCE: Economic factors were among the most important motivations for powerful countries to create empires. The following is an excerpt from an appeal from Jules Ferry (a French statesman) to the French monarchy to build a second colonial empire in 1890.

"Colonial (imperialist) policy is the child of the industrial revolution. It is necessary for wealthy countries where capital (money) is plentiful and accumulates (grows) fast, where industry is expanding steadily, where even agriculture must become mechanized in order to survive. Exports (goods sold to other countries) are essential for public prosperity (wealth). Both demand for labor and the opportunity for capital investment (starting new businesses) depend on the foreign market.

All over the world, beyond the Vosges (a French mountain range) and across the Atlantic, the industrial revolution has resulted in an increasing volume of manufactured goods, the disappearance of traditional markets, and the appearance of fierce competition.

The European consumer-goods market is saturated (full); unless we declare modern society bankrupt and prepare for its destruction by revolution, new consumer markets will have to be created in other parts of the world. Colonial policy is an international manifestation (representation) of the laws of competition."

1. Why does France need to find new consumer markets for their exports?

2. How is Imperialism tied to the industrial revolution?

3. Based on this document, how did economic factors drive Imperialism?
