Applicable Linguistics Ahmar Mahboob, Naomi K. Knight, 2010-06-24 This collection of research offers an initial step in the pursuit of an applicable linguistics Applicable Linguistics takes everyday real life language related problems both theoretical and practical in diverse social professional and academic contexts as its starting point It then uses and contributes to a theoretical model of language that can respond to and is applicable in the context The concept of applicable linguistics used in this volume is informed by the work of M A K Halliday who believes that the value of a theory lies in the use that can be made of it The chapters in this volume thus use and contribute to an applicable linguistics that engages with a range of issues including translation education language teaching learning multimodality media social policy and action and positive discourse analysis This collection of research is offered as an initial step in the pursuit of Applicable Linguistics which we hope will serve as a foundation for future work across the discipline Proceedings of the 2025 4th International Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities and Arts (SSHA 2025) Sun Jing, Sun Hefei, Liu Shuli, Ren Xianpin, Cuneyt Birkok, 2025-07-22 This is an open access book With the progress of social civilization social science and its research are becoming more and more important Theoretically and practically the study of social phenomena and social problems and the development of prosperous social sciences are the eternal themes of human beings At present social science research and its results can hardly meet the needs of social development especially the unscientific evaluation of social science results which has aroused great concern from all walks of life and has produced dirt and questions on social science thus affecting the proper development of social science Max Weber once said that the most important function of social science in modern times is to keep people clear headed and to resist the delusions of prophetic legislators Humanities and arts are the process of perceiving realizing thinking manipulating and expressing objective or subjective objects through capturing and excavating feeling and analyzing integrating and applying or displaying the stage results in the form obtained through feeling seeing hearing smelling touching The social sciences and humanities and arts contain content that will directly affect our lives and the way society functions And by reacting to today s increasingly intricate problems and situations through systematic and professional discussions they will further contribute to the improvement of institutions and the development of society By thinking about issues and looking at problems and the world from different perspectives by putting the two together it may be possible to have more comprehensive appropriate and better responses for example the development of laws requires a deeper understanding of the environment in which they are implemented international trade requires a certain understanding of the customs of different countries and the development of tax and economic policies requires a certain understanding of the population consumer demand etc Halliday in the 21st Century M.A.K. Halliday, 2013-12-05 This is the eleventh volume in Professor M A K Halliday s Collected Works First published as a 10 volume set from 2002 to 2007 they have shown the sizeable and growing international interest across a number of disciplines in the systemic functional linguistics framework Halliday's powerful theoretical approach to the study of language has contributed significantly not only to advances in our knowledge of how language works but also how linguistic insights may be practically applied across a wide spectrum of social concerns

Adoption and Multiculturalism Jenny Heijun Wills,Tobias Hubinette,Indigo Willing,2020-09-11 Adoption and Multiculturalism features the voices of international scholars reflecting transnational and transracial adoption and its relationship to notions of multiculturalism. The essays trouble common understandings about who is being adopted, who is adopting, and where these acts are taking place, challenging in fascinating ways the tidy master narrative of saviorhood and the concept of a monolithic Western receiving nation. Too often the presumption is that the adoptive and receiving country is one that celebrates racial and ethnic diversity, thus making it superior to the conservative and insular places from which adoptees arrive. The volume's contributors subvert the often simplistic ways that multiculturalism is linked to transnational and transracial adoption and reveal how troubling multiculturalism in fact can be. The contributors represent a wide range of disciplines, cultures, and connections in relation to the adoption constellation, bringing perspectives from Europe, including Scandinavia, Canada, the United States, and Australia. The book brings together the various methodologies of literary criticism, history, anthropology, sociology, and cultural theory to demonstrate the multifarious and robust ways that adoption and multiculturalism might be studied and considered. Edited by three transnational and transracial adoptees, Adoption and Multiculturalism: Europe, the Americas, and the Pacific offers bold new scholarship that revises popular notions of transracial and transnational adoption as practice and phenomenon.

Guilin Scenery 桂林, 1984 Travel Guide to the People's Republic of China Ruth Lor Malloy, 1980 中国旅游指南, 1988 The Changchun Guide Matthew Wood, Ferny Manrique, 2014-11-05 Located in the middle of China's North East Dongbei region, Changchun is a comparatively modern city with a short but fascinating history. With the primary industry being automotive, the city offers a surprising diversity in restaurants, nightlife, places to go, and things to do. The winters may be cold, but North easterners are a warm, friendly, and welcoming people. Changchun welcomes you and hopes your time here is pleasant, enjoyable, and memorable.

Drawing from Life Christine I. Ho, 2020-02-11 Drawing from Life explores revolutionary drawing and sketching in the early People's Republic of China, 1949-1965, in order to discover how artists created a national form of socialist realism. Tracing the development of seminal works by the major painters Xu Beihong, Wang Shikuo, Li Keran, Li Xiongcai, Dong Xiwen, and Fu Baoshi, author Christine I. Ho reconstructs how artists grappled with the representational politics of a nascent socialist art. The divergent approaches, styles, and genres presented in this study reveal an art world that is both heterogeneous and cosmopolitan. Through a history of artistic practices in pursuit of Maoist cultural ambitions to forge new registers of experience, new structures of feeling, and new aesthetic communities, this original book argues that socialist Chinese art presents a critical alternative vision for global modernism.
