

Effectiveness of Journal Writing in Supporting Skills in Writing English Essay

Bambang Yudi Cahyono

Abstract: This research was aimed at knowing the effectiveness of providing journal writing in supporting the students' skills in writing English essay. The subjects were English department students who took Writing III course in the academic year of 1995/1996. This study involved two intact groups of students. The experimental group was given weekly journal writing, while the control group followed the regular writing. At the end of the treatment, writing tests on free topics were assigned and the students' works were scored using ESL Composition Profile. The result of analysis using t-test indicated that journal writing scores of the students from the two groups were not significantly different. However, students' responses indicated positive evaluation on the application of journal writing.

Key words: writing skills, journal writing.

It has been widely believed that writing, among the four language skills, is the most difficult skill. This is because it involves several components which have to be considered while a learner is writing, for example contents, rhetorics, vocabularies, grammatical structures, and writing mechanics such as punctuation and capitalization (Hartfiel, et al., 1985:102). As a complex skill which is not easy to teach, it has stimulated

Landmark Essays on Writing Centers Christina Murphy, Joe Law, 2013-10-18 This collection introduces the reader to the ideas that have shaped writing center theory and practice The essays have been selected not only for the insight they offer into issues but also for their contributions to writing center scholarship These papers help to chart the legitimization of writing centers by providing both a history and an examination of the philosophies praxis and politics that have defined this emerging field They demonstrate the ways a clearer profile of the discipline has emerged from the research and reflection of writers like those represented here This volume charts the emergence of writing centers and the growing recognition of their contributions roles and importance As a nascent discipline writing centers reflect the concerns with marginality and with finding a respected place in the academy that characterize any new field of academic inquiry practice and research

Concomitantly professionals in these fields seek standing within the academy and a way of defining and validating their contributions to the educational process Contemporary writing center theorists look to interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary investigations to interpret the work they do and to clarify their aims to the academy at large Their work employs a variety of philosophical perspectives ranging from sociolinguistics to psychoanalytic theory to show the complex nature and potential of writing center interactions The idea has now become the multidimensional realities of the writing center within the academy and within society as a whole What its role will be in future redefinitions of the educational process how that role will be negotiated and evaluated and how professionals will shape educational values will constitute the future landmark directions and essays on writing center theory and practice College Admission Essays For Dummies Geraldine Woods,2011-06-15
