Freedom and Trade: Free trade and its reception, 1815-1960 Andrew Marrison, Geraint Parry, 1998 Annotation This book examines the Corn Laws and their repeal It brings together leading international experts working in the field from Britain Europe and the United States Their contributions range widely over the history politics and economics of free trade and protectionism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries together they provide a landmark study of a vitally important subject and one which remains at the top of today s international agenda American Agriculture and the Problem of Monopoly Jon Lauck, 2000-01-01 The breathtaking number of mergers and joint ventures among agribusiness firms has left independent American farmers facing the power of an increasingly concentrated buying sector The origin of farmers concern with such economic concentration dates back to protests against meatpackers and railroads in the late nineteenth century Jon Lauck examines the dimensions of this problem in the American Midwest in the decades following World War II He analyzes the nature of competition within meat packing and grain markets In addition he addresses concerns about corporate entry into production agriculture and the potential displacement of a production system defined by independent family farms Lauck also considers the ability of farmers to organize in order to counter the market power of large scale agribusiness buyers He explores the use of farmer cooperatives and other mechanisms which may increase the bargaining power of farmers The book offers the first serious historical examination of the National Farmers Organization which fully embraced the bargaining power cause in the postwar period Lauck finds that independent farmers attempts at organization have been more successful than previously recognized but he also shows that their successes have been undermined by the growing concentration and power of agri business firms justifying a new approach to antitrust law in agricultural markets Centenary Essays on

Reprint of the original first published in 1881 Official Gazette. English Edition Japan, 1947 Trade and Security Charles M. Dobbs, 2010-02-19 In a strange way the United States achieved its goal for the Vietnam War but forgot why it was fighting It was not fighting to keep South Vietnam from falling to the communists it was fighting in Indochina to buy time for the other free nations of the region to develop economically and strengthen their respective relationships with their polities In 1961 the region seemed weak economically Japan was on the eve of its great expansion that turned it into the world s second largest economy for many years South Korea and Taiwan still depended on US economic assistance and focused more on the perceived communist threat than improving the quality of life for their peoples Thailand similarly watched the civil war in Laos the Philippines needed to develop stability in government and the Malay peoples moved from Malaya to Malaysia to Malaysia and Singapore all the while warily watching events in Indonesia Trade and Security discusses how the US government sought to rally the region against the Communist threat and in part opened the American economy to exploitation by its East Asian allies and how those Allies used the Cold War and the perceived Chinese threat to gain greater access despite the consequent damage the American economy suffered While US financial officials complained about the increasing damage to the domestic economy and to the worsening balance of trade and balance of payments deficits diplomatic and military leaders remained fixated on the general superpower confrontation with the Soviet Union and the regional competition with the People s Republic of China Sessional Papers Great Britain.
