What's the current effect on the market?

In your presentations, we talked about what factors companies will pay their attention to when determining whether to invest. Today, you will work together to do a "Pomodoro" case study (page 10-11 in JE 2020) and answer questions based on the following assumptions: companies are looking at how they affect the cost of technology, climate, reputation, and not forgetting the influence of the business itself. Goals: you will understand up to date for yourself:

1. What industries are you going to focus on? (technology, agriculture, energy, etc.)
Considering the effect of climate, if technology is becoming a significant industry, the current effect on the market is positive through a positive effect on the technology industry, a positive effect on the technology industry, and a positive effect on the technology industry.
