Blum,2020-01-28 Samuel Beckett as a guru for business executives James Joyce as a guide to living a good life The notion of notoriously experimental authors sharing a shelf with self help books might seem far fetched yet a hidden history of rivalry influence and imitation links these two worlds In The Self Help Compulsion Beth Blum reveals the profound entanglement of modern literature and commercial advice from the late nineteenth century to the present day Blum explores popular reading practices in which people turn to literature in search of practical advice alongside modern writers rebukes of such instrumental purposes As literary authors positioned themselves in opposition to people like Samuel Smiles and Dale Carnegie readers turned to self help for the promises of mobility agency and practical use that serious literature was reluctant to supply Blum unearths a series of unlikely cases of the love hate relationship between serious fiction and commercial advice from Gustave Flaubert s mockery of early DIY culture to Dear Abby s cutting diagnoses of Nathanael West and from Virginia Woolf s ambivalent polemics against self improvement to the ways that contemporary global authors such as Mohsin Hamid and Tash Aw explicitly draw on the self help genre She also traces the self help industry s tendency to popularize quote and adapt literary wisdom and considers what it might have to teach today s university Offering a new history of self help s origins appeal and cultural and literary import around the world this book reveals that self help s most valuable secrets are not about getting rich or winning friends but about how and why people read The Postcolonial

Millennium Mohammad A. Quayum,Grace V.S. Chin,2024-04-04 This book comprises a collection of essays that address a significant gap in the study of Malaysian Literature in English by exploring selected local and diasporic writings produced in the new postcolonial millennium including works by established emerging and new writers The literary developments in this new millennium have been substantial and are reflected in the production of new voices viewpoints themes trends styles and forms By articulating these changing postcolonial perspectives and conditions the chapters in this volume can inform and enrich the study of nation society and culture in a globalized and hyperreal age Tapping into the difference diversity and hybridity of 21st century historicized and glocalized multicultural Malaysia the millennium writings explore the changing identities and relations and their social cultural and political dimensions through the intersections of race gender sexuality and class By examining new different or changing ideas forms themes and representations this book considers the vital ways the millennium voices and viewpoints can potentially help us critically rethink and resituate postcolonial studies on Malaysia as they spotlight challenges and new directions in the field The book will be of interest to researchers academics and scholars in the field of Malaysian writing in English Southeast Asian literature Asian literature diaspora and literary studies The chapters in the book were originally published as a special issue in the Journal of Postcolonial Writing The South Tash Aw,2025-05-27 A luminous and intimate novel about the weight of inheritance the bonds of loyalty and the awakening of love set against the backdrop of a changing Malaysia The South unfolds during a visit by the Lim family to their rural clan estate after a long absence Jay in his mid teens and his two older sisters are less than thrilled to leave their city for the

remote house in the south but their parents Sui Ching and Jack are adamant Jay finds he s expected to share a room with Chuan the son of the estate s overseer a bit older than Jay but seemingly much more mature and capable in the world The two soon form an intense bond but with their very different backgrounds and even more disparate expectations for the future the course of their relationship is always an unspoken question Meanwhile change presses in including the destruction of the farm s beloved orchards and the sale of the estate is mooted The relationships between Chuan s father and Jack and Sui Ching go deep but pressures both internal and external threaten to sever old bonds and upend an entire way of life The South at once sweeping and intimate is a masterful portrait of a family navigating a period of great transformation Lonely Planet Shanghai Lonely Planet, Kate Morgan, Trent Holden, Helen Elfer, 2017-05-01 1 best selling guide to Shanghai Lonely Planet Shanghai is your passport to the most relevant up to date advice on what to see and skip and what hidden discoveries await you Get a feel for the latest trends in the French Concession whizz down to Hangzhou on a high speed train or explore the city s traditional laneways in Jing an all with your trusted travel companion Get to the heart of Shanghai and begin your journey now Inside Lonely Planet Shanghai Travel Guide Colour maps and images throughout Highlights and itineraries help you tailor your trip to your personal needs and interests Insider tips to save time and money and get around like a local avoiding crowds and trouble spots Essential info at your fingertips hours of operation phone numbers websites transit tips prices Honest reviews for all budgets eating sleeping sight seeing going out shopping hidden gems that most guidebooks miss Cultural insights give you a richer more rewarding travel experience history religion architecture cuisine visual arts literature music Chinese opera cinema fashion martial arts festivals Covers The Bund People s Square Old Town French Concession Jing an Pudong Hongkou Xujiahui Hangzhou Suzhou Tongli Zhujiajiao Zhouzhuang Sheshan and more eBook Features Best viewed on tablet devices and smartphones Downloadable PDF and offline maps prevent roaming and data charges Effortlessly navigate and jump between maps and reviews Add notes to personalise your guidebook experience Seamlessly flip between pages Bookmarks and speedy search capabilities get you to key pages in a flash Embedded links to recommendations websites Zoom in maps and images Inbuilt dictionary for quick referencing The Perfect Choice Lonely Planet Shanghai our most comprehensive guide to Shanghai is perfect for both exploring top sights and taking roads less travelled About Lonely Planet Lonely Planet is a leading travel media company and the world s number one travel guidebook brand providing both inspiring and trustworthy information for every kind of traveler since 1973 Over the past four decades we ve printed over 145 million guidebooks and grown a dedicated passionate global community of travelers You ll also find our content online and in mobile apps video 14 languages nine international magazines armchair and lifestyle books ebooks and more Important Notice The digital edition of this book may not contain all of the images found in the physical edition

Hau, 2022-11-14 The contributors to Siting Postcoloniality reevaluate the notion of the postcolonial by focusing on the Sinosphere the region of East and Southeast Asia that has been significantly shaped by relations with China throughout history. Pointing out that the history of imperialism in China and Southeast Asia is longer and more complex than Euro American imperialism, the contributors complicate the traditional postcolonial binaries of center periphery, colonizer colonized and developed developing. Among other topics, they examine socialist China's attempts to break with Soviet cultural hegemony, the postcoloniality of Taiwan as it negotiates the legacy of Japanese colonial rule, Southeast Asian and South Asian diasporic experiences of colonialism and Hong Kong's complex colonial experiences under the British, the Japanese and mainland China. The contributors show how postcolonial theory's central concepts cannot adequately explain colonialism in the Sinosphere. Challenging fundamental axioms of postcolonial studies, this volume forcefully suggests that postcolonial theory needs to be rethought.

Off-White Sheng-mei Ma, 2019-11-14

How do English speaking novelists and filmmakers tell stories of China from a Chinese perspective? How do they keep up appearances of pseudo Sino immanence while ventriloquizing solely in the English language? Anglo writers and their readers join in this century old game of impersonating and dubbing Chinese. Throughout this wish fulfillment, writers lean on grammatical and conceptual frameworks of their mother tongue to represent an alien land and its yellowface aliens. Off white or yellowish characters and their foreign sounding speech are thus performed in Anglo American fiction and visual culture. Both yellowface and Chinglish are of for by the white people. Off White interrogates seminal Anglo American fiction and film on off white bodies and voices. It commences with one Nobel laureate Pearl Buck and ends with another Kazuo Ishiguro almost a century later. The trajectory in between illustrates that the detective and mystery genres continue unabated their stock yellowface characters who exude a magnetic field so powerful as to pull in Japanese anime. This universal drive to fashion a foil is ingrained in any will to power so much so that even millennial China creates an off yellow darker hued Orient in Hollywood films to silhouette its global ascent.

Imagining Neoliberal Globalization in Contemporary World Fiction

Michael Walonen, 2018-04-27

We are in the midst of the third tectonic social transformation in human history. Our current transition toward greater forms of transnational interconnection, consumption and finance driven rather than production based capitalism, digital information and cultural flows and the attendant large scale social and ecological consequences of these are drastically remaking our world. Cultural producers from across the globe are seeking to make sense of and provide insights into these complex changes. Imagining Neoliberal Globalization in Contemporary World Fiction takes a broad cross cultural approach to analyzing the literature of our increasingly transnationalized world system, considering how its key constituent features and local level manifestations have been thematized and imaginatively seized upon by literary fiction produced from the perspective of the periphery of the capitalist world system. Textual renderings of globalization are not simply second order approximations of it but constitutive elements of globalization that condition how it will be understood.

and responded to and so coming to terms with the narrativizations of globalization is vital scholarly work as among other things it allows us to see to what extent it is currently possible to imagine alternatives to globalization's more baleful aspects. This work will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of areas including contemporary literary cultural studies, globalization studies, international relations and international political economy. Cities and Social Change Ronan Paddison, Eugene McCann, 2014-06-17. This textbook of essays by leading critical urbanists is a compelling introduction to an important field of study; it interrogates contemporary conflicts and contradictions inherent in the social experience of living in cities that are undergoing neoliberal restructuring and grapples with profound questions and challenging policy considerations about diversity, equity and justice. A stimulant to debate in any undergraduate urban studies classroom, this book will inspire a new generation of urban social scholars. Alison Bain, York University. Stages a lively encounter with different understandings of urban production and experience and does so by bringing together an exciting group of scholars working across a diversity of theoretical and geographical contexts. The book focuses on some of the central conceptual and political challenges of contemporary cities including inequality and poverty, justice and democracy and everyday life and urban imaginaries, providing a critical platform through which to ask how we might work towards alternative forms of urban living. Colin McFarlane, Durham University. What is the city? What is the nature of living in the city? This new textbook provides students with an in-depth understanding of the central issues associated with the city and how living in a city impacts its inhabitants. Theoretically informed and thematically rich, the book is edited by leading scholars in the field and contains an eminent international cast of contributors and contributions. It provides a critical analysis of the key thinkers, themes and paradigms dealing with the relationship between the built environment and urban life. It includes illustrative case studies, questions for discussion, further reading and web links. Examining the contradictions, conflicts and complexities of city living the book is an essential resource for students looking to get to grips with the different theoretical and substantive approaches that make up the diverse and rich study of the city and urban life. Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum, 2020-05-15. This collection of essays brings together work by some of the most internationally acclaimed critics of Malaysian literature in English from different parts of the world including Australia, Canada, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore and the US. It investigates the works of major writers of the tradition in the genres of drama, fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present, focusing mainly on thematic and stylistic trends. The book pays particular attention to issues such as gender, ethnicity, nationalism, multiculturalism, diaspora, hybridity and transnationalism, which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers. The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English first introduced by the colonisers has experienced a mixed fate of ups and downs in the post-independence period due to the changing and sometimes strikingly different policies adopted by the government. The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature, Southeast Asian studies and postcolonial
