- When interrupted, write your first theme. (Remember not to add a second for your second)
- In each column, write what you compare, particularly a similarity for the first column
- Write "No argument" between substantially different arguments
- Use the last column for time and cost
- The "Theme you" column focuses, with an eye for the specific audience. After thinking about the specific audience, I will end up in the last line
- Remember: listing the other arguments in an organized fashion helps you, even if you do not use all arguments listed
