Fundzha Luxaka Bursary Application Forms2016:

Being a Teacher in Post-Apartheid South Africa Yusuf Sayed, Marcina Singh, 2025-05-01 In a compelling exploration of the challenges faced by newly qualified teachers NQTs in South Africa's evolving educational landscape this book provides an empirically grounded account of their experiences Drawing on extensive research it offers a poignant narrative that seeks to illuminate the nuanced journey these educators embark upon as they transition from teacher education spaces to the complex reality of classrooms in post Apartheid South Africa The book acts as a crucial platform for the voices of NQTs shedding light on the myriad enablers and disablers they encounter during this transformative period Timely and relevant it tackles pressing questions about the readiness of teacher education to prepare students for the demands of South African schools The book charts the transition from teacher education to active teacher for NQTs The lessons distilled from this research present a clarion call for a re assessment of teacher education policies and practices This book arrives at a pivotal moment as South Africa reviews its teacher education policies With the quality of initial teacher education programmes under scrutiny the book's critiques findings and recommendations serve as indispensable tools for policymakers arguing for the need to reconceptualise South African teacher education policies As South Africa strives to avoid a cycle of developing new teachers only to lose them due to inadequate support this book seeks to support educators policymakers and all those invested in the future of South African education toward creating a more socially just education system recognising the highly unequal society in which teachers work Where Am I in the Picture? Claudia Mitchell, Katarina

Giritli-Nygren, Relebohile Molestane, 2023-12-18 Positionality and researcher reflexivity how to account for one's subject position remain as challenges for new researchers But they also remain as challenges for experienced researchers who are often involved in multiple research projects simultaneously Where Am I in the Picture sheds light on the idea of researcher positionality through visual methodologies particularly in the context of studying rurality in Canada Sweden and South Africa The book is intended for new and experienced researchers seeking to decolonize their own perspectives in research in the social sciences and humanities It incorporates photographs drawings and memory work to highlight the social constructedness of what counts as rural Drawing together compelling narratives from researchers about their positionality in studying rurality the book highlights a need for greater attention to where we are in the picture more broadly It suggests that when it comes to the rural researchers need to rethink the interplay of dominant images insider and outsider perspectives and what this interplay means in relation to interpretation Where Am I in the Picture presents a new vision of how to take into consideration positionality in research States and the Making of Others Jeanne Bouyat, Amandine Le Bellec, Lucas Puygrenier, 2024-06-17 This volume offers a unique interdisciplinary and comparative perspective on contemporary processes of othering by state institutions in relation to dynamics of racism xenophobia sexism homo transphobia as well as ethnic and class based discriminations It focuses on eight original case studies empirically grounded in various domains of the social state in Southern African and Western European contexts the education and health care systems the regulation of work and of procreation rights and institutions in charge of granting asylum The authors provide key insights on how states produce Others and on how othering contributes in turn to the process of state formation and the politicization of public action
