Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Maringe, Felix, Prew, Martin, 2015-05-05
Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years Fostering Pedagogical Innovation Through Effective Instructional Design Khaldi, Mohamed, 2024-01-10 There have been seismic shifts recently occurring in the realm of education There is an important transition from a focus on qualification to competence in the world of work and the need to equip educators with the skills and methodologies required to meet these changing demands has never been greater The role of a teacher can no longer be a static practitioner but rather a dynamic decision maker ready to shape developing minds Fostering Pedagogical Innovation Through Effective Instructional Design is an expansive research book that delves deep into the intricate art of teaching emphasizing that pedagogy is not a one size fits all endeavor This scholarly work asserts that effective teaching is rooted in understanding context and a relentless commitment to refining one's instructional practices The book introduces an array of critical parameters that educators must consider including content selection learner needs and the ever evolving realm of information and communication technologies It navigates the reader through the intricacies of andragogy the theoretical foundations of didactics and innovative pedagogical approaches offering a comprehensive toolkit for educators striving to optimize their craft A scholarly contribution to educational praxis M.A. Mokoena, J.M. (Ona) Janse van Rensburg, M. Erasmus, E. Mentz, C.B. Zulu, A. Cronje, E.K. Materechera, W.T. Dudu, A.T. Kanyimba, S.P. Raath, C. Kruger, A. Loubser, A.E. Pienaar, A. Klopper, S. Ellis, N.T. Petersen, J. de Beer, J. Varughese, A. Seugnet Blignaut, C. Els, 2016-12-31 This publication contains original research targeting scientific specialists in the field of education through research endeavours grounded on a philosophical basis as well as being embedded in the empirical The research methodology of each chapter emanates from applicable philosophical assumptions in the form of an applicable theoretical and conceptual framework The latter forms a firm basis for the application of sound empiricism The content of this book adds to the body of scholarly knowledge in education In his evaluation of the book Acting Executive Dean Faculty of Education and Training Professor Akpovire Oduaran made the following remarks To a large extent the ideas put together in this book have come from data generated not just from literature found in books and journals but actual interactions with educators and the learning environment So then what the reader is offered in this volume is the articulation of ideas that have been interrogated structured and presented in surprisingly simplistic and yet incisive and academically enriching content that can match the standards of scholarship that is available in the Western World Yet what makes this book so welcome relevant and timely is the fact that it is built around Afrocentric theories and practices such as one may find in imported literature

Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy,Robert Cameron,Ursula Hoadley,Vinothan Naidoo,2018-09-21 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education Using the vivid example of South Africa a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re orient the system towards learning

The Changing Space Economy of City-Regions Koech Cheruiyot,2017-10-30 This book addresses the South African Space Economy and its stark disparities and dualisms through an assessment of the Gauteng City Region the largest economic agglomeration in the country and on a continent bedevilled by a myriad of development challenges The book s focus on understanding the overall character of Gauteng City Region's Space Economy through data mining analysis and mapping comprehensively supplements the Space Economy literature on the region. It covers the disparities exacerbated by an overlay of apartheid planning ideology and top-down regional development based on selective encouragement of manufacturing investments in growth points or poles and how implementation of past policies intended to cure these disparities have yielded mixed results. This book further offers the Gauteng City Region as a microcosm of the national economy in the form of evident significant place-based variations in the intensity and character of economic structure that on the one hand enjoys massive agglomeration economies while on the other has high levels of poverty and large numbers of people living below the Minimum Living Level. This book should appeal to urban studies specialists, economists and development studies researchers in the Global South.

Department of Basic Education, 2016. The Age of STEM Brigid Freeman, Simon Marginson, Russell Tytler, 2014-10-24. Across the world STEM learning and work in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics has taken central importance in education and the economy in a way that few other disciplines have. STEM competence has become seen as key to higher productivity, technological adaptation and research-based innovation. No area of educational provision has a greater current importance than the STEM disciplines yet there is a surprising dearth of comprehensive and world-wide information about STEM policy, participation programs and practice. The Age of STEM is a state-of-the-art survey of the global trends and major country initiatives in STEM. It gives an international overview of issues such as STEM strategy and coordination, curricula, teaching and assessment, women in STEM, indigenous students, research training, STEM in the graduate labour markets, STEM breadth and STEM depth. The individual chapters give comparative international analysis as well as a global overview, particularly focusing on the growing number of policies and practices in mobilising and developing talent in the STEM fields. The book will be of particular interest to anyone involved in educational policy, those in education management and leaders in both schooling and tertiary education It will have a wider resonance among practitioners in the STEM disciplines particularly at university level and for those interested in contemporary public policy South African national bibliography ,1999
