Michelangelo Giordano is a professional basketball player. With a height of 212cm, he is the fifth tallest player in the Italian National Basketball League. He has played in the Italian National Basketball League since his debut in 2003. He started playing basketball as a boy in his backyard when he was just 5 years old. Michelangelo played in a youth league for six years and was captain of his team when he was just ten. He helped lead his team to the championships three times. In high school, he played on his school's varsity team. During his time there, Michelangelo scored more points than anybody else at the high school with a career high of 1250 points. He was selected as the Most Valuable Player during his senior year. He was scouted out by many colleges, but decided to go to the University of Italy in Florence.

During his time at college, he worked with his team to make it to the national tournaments every year. Michelangelo played the position of point guard. When he was in his third year of college, he was made captain of the team. That year, he led his team to become the #2 college basketball team in Italy. After Michelangelo finished college, he entered the draft for the Italian National Basketball Squad and was selected by the Florence Machines in 2003. He played there for 5 years. Afterwards, he played for the Naples Warriors, where he is still playing today.

In 2012, Michelangelo was selected to play for the Italian National Squad to play in the European Continental Tournament between all European countries held every four years. The Italian team played very well and managed to make it to the final four teams in the tournament. In 2016, Michelangelo has been selected again to play in the European Continental Tournament. He hopes that this time that they can make it to the championships and win.
