New Funding Model to Streamline University Education - PS

The Department of Education (DepEd) has announced a new funding model to streamline university education. The new model, known as the Public-Private Partnership (PPP) model, will allow private universities to receive government funding for their students. This will help to reduce the financial burden on students and their families, and ensure that all students have access to quality education. The new model will also help to improve the quality of education by encouraging private universities to invest in their facilities and faculty.
