Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 2013 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 From GCSEs to EBCs Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Education Committee, 2013 The Government s plans for replacing GCSEs with new English Baccalaureate Certificates in some subjects is trying to do too much too fast Introducing several fundamental changes at the same time and to a tight timetable will jeopardise the quality of the reforms and may threaten the stability of the wider exam system GCSEs need significant improvements in order to restore public confidence in the exam system but the Government still needs to make the case that the GCSE brand is so discredited that it is beyond repair MPs are also concerned about the impact of the changes on subjects outside the English Baccalaureate where students will be taking GCSEs for some time to come according to the Government s plans The report also questions how well the Government s proposals will serve lower attaining pupils who are often the most disadvantaged There is no evidence that the proposed changes will help to tackle under achievement or narrow the attainment gap between the richest and poorest students any more effectively than GCSEs The Government is also called upon to re think its plans for a Statement of Achievement specifically for lower attaining pupils MPs agree that changes are needed to the way in which exams are run but they raise serious concerns about franchising subjects to exam boards The report is critical of the Government s decision to abolish some GCSEs before publishing the outcomes of the National Curriculum Review and its proposed changes to the school accountability system MPs also note the wide ranging stakeholder opposition to many of the Government s proposals The Times Index , 1997 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational

 Turning is the first volume of Charles Moore's authorized biography of Margaret Thatcher the longest serving Prime Minister of the twentieth century and one of the most influential political figures of the postwar era Charles Moore's biography of Margaret Thatcher published after her death on 8 April 2013 immediately supercedes all earlier books written about her At the moment when she becomes a historical figure this book also makes her into a three dimensional one for the first time It gives unparalleled insight into her early life and formation especially through her extensive correspondence with her sister which Moore is the first author to draw on It recreates brilliantly the atmosphere of British politics as she was making her way and takes her up to what was arguably the zenith of her power victory in the Falklands This volume ends with the Falklands Dinner in Downing Street in November 1982 Moore is clearly an admirer of his subject but he does not shy away from criticising her or identifying weaknesses and mistakes where he feels it is justified Based on unrestricted access to all Lady Thatcher's papers unpublished interviews with her and all her major colleagues this is the indispensable fully rounded portrait of a towering figure of our times The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987
