Scholars' Guide to Humanities and Social Sciences in the Soviet Union and the Baltic States Tigran Martirosyan, Silvia Maretti, S. Frederick Starr, 2019-11-21

In the years since the first edition of the Guide was published the research institutions of the academies of sciences of the USSR and the republics have undergone several sometimes radical reorganizations and reaffiliations This guide to academy institutions supplies names addresses and historical research and organizational profiles for each institution with summary information on staffing current projects special facilities and libraries The end of the Cold War has brought with it many changes of attitude and policy in the political arena however nowhere has change been so emotionally charged as in the area of politically based emigration Refugee policy is the driving force behind many of today's headlines influencing both foreign and domestic policy In Desperate Crossings authors Norman L and Naomi Flink Zucker chronicle and analyze the phenomenon of mass escape that began with the Haitians but exploded into the American consciousness in the spring of 1980 with the Mariel boatlift and the subsequent mass exodus from Central America and was most recently manifested in the Haitian and Cuban exoduses of 1994 In a compelling and carefully documented narrative they identify the troika of interests foreign policy domestic pressures and costs that have controlled and determined the American response to refugees since before the Second World War continuing until today Desperate Crossings concludes by proposing a comprehensive and politically palatable approach to future refugee flows both in our hemisphere and for the world community at large including Europe and Asia The authors suggest how by changing the course of its refugee policies and programs the United States can better respond to both the needs of refugees and the

the 1930s in the United States the Works Progress Administration developed the Federal Writers Project to support writers and artists while making a national effort to document the country's shared history and culture. The American Guide series consists of individual guides to each of the states. Little-known authors, many of whom would later become celebrated literary figures, were commissioned to write these important books. John Steinbeck, Saul Bellow, Zora Neale Hurston, and Ralph Ellison are among the more than 6,000 writers, editors, historians, and researchers who documented this celebration of local histories. Photographs, drawings, driving tours, detailed descriptions of towns, and rich cultural details exhibit each state's unique flavor. The WPA Guide to Georgia describes the rich historical and cultural background of America's Peach State. With varied and interesting photos, the guide gives readers a real taste as to what sweet southern living was like in the 1940s all the way from the top of the Blue Ridge Mountains down to the roaring Mississippi River valley.

Home and School Reading and Study Guides, 1996 Bibliography of Georgia Authors, 1949-1965 John W. Bonner, Jr., 2010-03-01 Starting in 1949 John W. Bonner Jr. compiled an annual annotated bibliography of books by Georgia writers for the Georgia Review. Published in 1966, this volume contains sixteen years of publications by native-born Georgian authors and authors who had lived in the state for at least five years. Books are listed by author, title, publisher, date, and price of the work. The annotations are descriptive rather than critical, intended to outline what type of material is contained in the books. A complete index by author is included.

The discovery of mission Santa Catalina has contributed significantly to knowledge about early inhabitants of the island and about the Spanish presence in Georgia nearly two centuries before the arrival of British colonists.

Master Register of Bicentennial Projects, February 1976 American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, 1976 Through the Arch Larry B. Dendy, 2013 Through the Arch captures UGA's colorful past, dynamic present, and promising future in a novel way by surveying its buildings, structures, and spaces. These physical features are the university's most visible and some of its most valuable resources. Yet they are largely overlooked or treated only passingly in histories and standard publications about UGA. Through text and photographs, this book places buildings and spaces in the context of UGA's development over more than 225 years. After opening with a brief historical overview of the university, the book profiles over 140 buildings, landmarks, and spaces, their history, appearance, and past and current usage, as well as their namesake, beginning with the oldest structures on North Campus and progressing to the newest facilities on South and East Campus and the emerging Northwest Quadrant. Many profiles are supplemented with sidebars relating traditions, lore, facts, or alumni recollections associated with buildings and spaces. More than just landmarks or static elements of infrastructure, buildings and spaces embody the university's values.

cultural heritage and educational purpose These facilities many more than a century old are where students learn explore and grow and where faculty teach research and create They harbor the university s history and traditions protect its treasures and hold memories for alumni The repository for books documents artifacts and tools that contain and convey much of the accumulated knowledge and wisdom of human existence these structures are the legacy of generations And they are tangible symbols of UGA s commitment to improve our world through education Guide includes 113 color photos throughout 19 black and white historical photos Over 140 profiles of buildings landmarks and spaces Supplemental sidebars with traditions lore facts and alumni anecdotes 6 maps
