

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Daya Sagar, Qiuming Cheng, Jennifer McKinley, Frits Agterberg, 2023-07-13 The Encyclopedia of Mathematical Geosciences is a complete and authoritative reference work. Over 300 international scientists, each expert in their specialties, have written around 350 separate articles on different topics of mathematical geosciences, including contributions on Artificial Intelligence, Big Data, Compositional Data Analysis, Geomathematics, Geostatistics, Geographical Information Science, Mathematical Morphology, Mathematical Petrology, Multifractals, Multiple Point Statistics, Spatial Data Science, Spatial Statistics, and Stochastic Process Modeling. Each topic incorporates cross-referencing to related articles and also has its own reference list to lead the reader to essential articles within the published literature. The entries are arranged alphabetically for easy access, and the subject and author indices are comprehensive and extensive. Basel IV

Martin Neisen, Stefan Röth, 2018-07-26 In December 2017, the Basel committee finalised its work on the reform of the Basel III framework. Together with requirements already published in 2015 and 2016, the Basel committee changes all approaches for the calculation of RWA and the corresponding Pillar III disclosure rules. This package of new standards from the Basel Committee, which is unofficially called Basel IV, is now the most comprehensive package of modifications in the history of banking supervision. The banking industry will face major challenges in implementing these new rules. The second edition of the Basel IV handbook is updated with all publications up to March 2018 and also extensively enhanced with additional details, examples, and case studies. The aim is to convince the reader that we are facing a new framework called Basel IV and not just a fine adjustment of the existing Basel III regulations. This book covers all new approaches for the calculation of RWA: the standardised approach, CR, SA, and the IRB approach for credit risk; the new standardised approach for counterparty credit risk, SA, CCR, both the standardised approach and internal models approach; from the fundamental review of the trading book, SBA and IMA, the basic approach, BA, CVA, and standardised approach, SA, CVA, for the CVA risk; all new approaches: SEC, IRBA, SEC, ERBA, SEC, SA, IAA for securitisations incl. STS; the approaches for the calculation of RWA for equity positions in investment funds, LTA, MBA, FBA; the new standardised approach for operational risk, SA, OpRisk. Because of the strong relation to the Pillar I requirements, the second edition covers the topics of interest rate risk in the banking book, IRRBB, large exposures, and TLAC again. Additionally, the book contains a detailed description of the Pillar III disclosure requirements. With the aid of a high-profile team of experts from countries all over the globe, the complexity of the topic is reduced, and important support is offered.

Policy-Making in the GCC Neil Quilliam,Mark C. Thompson,2017-09-11 The GCC is a major player in the post 2011 reordering of the Middle East Despite the rise in prominence of individual Gulf states especially Kuwait Qatar Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates and the growth of the GCC as a collective entity surprisingly little attention has been paid to the actual mechanics of policy making in the region This book analyses the vital role that institutions are coming to play in shaping policy in the Gulf Arab states The research coincides with two key developments that have given institutions new importance in the policy process the emergence of a new generation of leaders in the Gulf and the era of low oil prices Both developments along with dramatic demographic change have compelled state and citizens to re evaluate the nature of the social contract that binds them together Contributors assess the changing relationship between state and citizen and evaluate the role that formal and informal institutions play in mediating such change and informing policy The book shows how academic social and economic institutions are responding to the increasingly complex process of decision making where citizens demand better services and further empowerment and states are obliged to seek wider counsel although wanting to retain ultimate authority With contributions from both academics and practitioners this book will be highly relevant for researchers and policymakers alike
