

THE COLD WAR

Name _____

In 1917, the Bolshevik Revolution eliminated rule by the czar's family and established rule by the communist party in Russia. The leader of the Bolsheviks was Vladimir Lenin (see top right photo ->). Russia renamed the territory it controlled the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, or the U.S.S.R. (or short: USSR). Upon his unexpected death in 1924, the Russian communist party was taken over by Joseph Stalin (lower photo). "Uncle Joe," as he was called in the U.S. as our ally during World War II, remained the leader of the USSR until his death in 1953.

REVIEW: WHAT IS CAPITALISM? Capitalism is an economic system in which citizens own private property and are entitled to profits from it. In a capitalist country, almost all the natural resources, factories, mines and land are owned by individuals. They keep the profits from what they own.

REVIEW: WHAT IS COMMUNISM? Communism is an economic system in which the people as a whole own all the natural resources, factories, mines and land of their country. In theory, all citizens profit from the resources of a country. In practice, the government owns everything, sets all prices, employs everyone, and distributes all profits.

"THE COLD WAR" WAS the rivalry between the communist USSR (and its allies) and the democratic, capitalist USA (and its allies) between 1945 and 1991, in which both contributed to wars in other countries to gain allies.

The main danger from conflicts during the Cold War was nuclear proliferation—the spread of nuclear technology—and the nuclear arms race between the USA and the USSR.
