Hodge S Systematic Theology Volume 1 4:

Reformed Systematic Theology, Volume 1 Joel Beeke, Paul M. Smalley, 2019-03-14 The church needs good theology that engages the head heart and hands This four volume work combines rigorous historical and theological scholarship with application and practicality characterized by an accessible Reformed and experiential approach In this volume Joel R Beeke and Paul M Smalley explore the first two of eight central themes of theology revelation and God Systematic Theology, Volume Two Morton H. Smith, 2019-09-10 Dr Smith's Systematic Theology is the culmination of several decades of teaching and demonstrates his familiarity with several streams of Reformed theology represented by such theologians as John Calvin James Henley Thornwell Charles Hodge B B Warfield Herman Bavinck John Murray and Cornelius Van Til It was his delight to expose his students to the breadth of the Reformed tradition while celebrating its essential unity its thorough grounding in Scripture and its consistent focus on piety Systematic Theology/Historical Theology Bundle Wayne A. Grudem, Gregg Allison, 2015-10-27 A collection that includes two of our most exemplary textbooks Systematic Theology and Historical Theology The ebook will provide an introduction to Biblical and Christian doctrine Christian Theology, Volume One Thomas N. Finger, 2020-03-09 Thomas N Finger has chosen an approach to the systematic presentation of Christian Theology which I also have taken since the publication of my Theology of Hope in 1964 He begins with the goal with eschatology With that goal in mind a new light is cast on every single doctrine of Christian theology the light of redemption and the work of the theologian becomes a labor of hope This is a theology of the way With the kingdom of God kept steadily in view it becomes an invitation to walk the way of Jesus Tom Finger's theological prospectus makes a brilliant contribution to ecumenical theological dialogue from the Anabaptist tradition He offers an eschatologically oriented theology for which I can only congratulate him J rgen Moltmann Professor of Theology University of T bingen While many systematic theological texts are shaped by academic discussion of ancient thought and or modern philosophies Finger centers on the kerygma of the biblical text that the last things or eschatological events expected at history's climax had already occurred through Jesus life death and resurrection though they were not yet fully realized To present eschatology as a living hope that always has motivated and still motivates Christians and Christian communities in all things Finger does not follow the discipline s traditional order where eschatology appears last but places it first Volume II will culminate with the doctrine of God which usually comes first This is hardly to minimize God's importance but to maximize it as the Christian faith's most profound mystery Volume I begins with eschatology to present it as a dynamic boundless atmosphere in which theological reflection unfolds While this dynamism envelops Christian life and mission it is not merely subjective It is hope for the transformation of all creation It is not only celebrative for it also struggles against the gruesome evils that seek to dominate all things From this vantage point eschatology in Volume I seeks to articulate the significance of the resurrection the last judgment heaven and hell the return of Christ and the millenium's coming These reflections lead to revelation beginning from the final revelation of Jesus Christ 1

Peter 1 3 13 Revelation s dimensions are treated as personal as historical extending forwards from Genesis and as propositional or its way of converying its contents These point theological reflection to revelation s center Jesus Christ chiefly to his saving work in his life death and resurrection Here the strengths and weaknesses of the traditional substitutionary and moral influence theories are examined But when placed within their revelational or historical sequence Jesus conflict with the powers of evil stands out These prove to be gigantic systemic forces which have always ordered but also imprisoned humankind such as the Roman Empire Yet their horror and power stretch beyond any social or psychological explanation In Jesus life and death these powers appear to conquer him But through his resurrection Jesus conquers them This drama is best articulated by the Christus Victor approach in which Jesus with his Father and Spirit defeats these powers but does not totally destroy them This is why their eschatological reign is already present but evil is not yet destroyed until the end

The Problem of Orthodoxy Michael Blanco,2024-07-08 The Problem of Orthodoxy Evangelicals at the Crossroads of Truth and Power reexamines Christian orthodoxy especially contemporary evangelicalism in the United States from the standpoint of structure instead of content Rather than focus on which Christian doctrines are correct Michael Blanco explores how orthodoxy functions to invite cajole warn demonize and perpetrate violence against those who are within and without its circle The author is particularly interested in the nexus of power and orthodoxy including violence and many of his examples also touch on diversity equity and inclusion DEI To the degree that orthodoxy acts to coerce viewpoints and actions especially over doctrinal and moral peccadilloes this fact constitutes the problem of orthodoxy Theology: Volume I - The Doctrine of God Augustus Hopkins Strong, 2017-04-09 The opening book in this three volume set it focuses exclusively on the person of God Within the grounds of this work are the person of God the authority of scripture and the works of God in our world These topics are becoming more relevant today as people are constantly The Maleness of Jesus Neil H. Williams, 2011-01-01 At the center of Christianity is guestioning the person of the Father Jesus of Nazareth whose maleness is used by many to justify the subordination of women and to emphasize that men rather than women better represent Jesus This raises a number of questions that are the subject of this book What is the significance of Jesus maleness Does it reveal the character of God Is it foundational for the gospel Is Jesus maleness associated with an ongoing created order of male priority Our answers will affect Christianity's task of love justice and reconciliation in a world that is characterized by the global marginalization oppression and abuse of women Lincoln's Greatest Speech Ronald C. Ezigbo, 2015-12-31 Should Christianity s theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The guestion about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine The Grace of God, the Will of Man Clark H. Pinnock, 1989 The Grace of God the Will of Man A Case for Arminianism was written by an impressive team of evangelical scholars from many traditions. This work carries on the ancient debate about the scope of God s saving purposes and the manner of his effecting salvation in human beings It defends the proposition that God is a dynamic personal Agent who respects the freedom he chose to delegate to his human creatures and relates sensitively to us in the outworking of his plans for the whole of history God is love and expresses his power by working salvation among us under conditions of genuine mutuality The contributors to this volume are Christian scholars who are eager to present this evangelical model as an alternative to deterministic theology They do not claim to have said the last word on the subject but want at least to keep the ball of theological discussion in play God, Revelation and Authority Carl F. H. Henry, 1999 Part 5 in a monumental six volume set that presents an undeniable case for the revealed authority of God to a generation that has forgotten who he is and what he has done The Immediacy of God Douglas Vickers, 2009-05-13 The confessing church in our time treats lightly the doctrinal deposit of its theological inheritance. The clamor of competition for the reconstruction of belief systems has too often neglected older and more secure moorings In a postmodern age that countenances individual belief idiosyncrasies and accords them sanctity the answer to the ordinary man's question What is the gospel is often clouded and confused Against doctrinal uncertainties and insecurities The Immediacy of God brings back into prominence a number of foundational issues related to the doctrines of God and salvation of theology and soteriology In doing so it anchors its thought structure in the basic apologetic presupposition that God is and in the fundamental hermeneutical principle of divine covenantal purpose The originality of Vickers argument lies in its proposal of new perspectives on its chosen subject range and as it becomes necessary for the elucidation of biblical belief its critical response to proposals for new theological paradigms The organizing core of the book s argument is its proposition regarding the immediacy of God in his being his knowledge his will and his actions That core proposition spills its influence to aspects of human salvation On such levels questions are raised that strike to the heart of the meaning of the divinely instituted redemptive process Divine actions within that process are understood to be immediate rather than mediate Redemptive actions of God are immediate in the sense that no mediating causes exist between those actions and their effects and outcomes in the human condition
