Career Or College Pathway Mychal Wynn, 2000-09-05 Provides guidance in developing an Individual Graduation Plan with forms for students in grades 6-12 planning a career or college pathway into the workforce military or college What We Work with William C. McCoy, 2002 This educator's response to the failing school issue offers firsthand knowledge and in-depth understanding into rationale other than poor teachers and schools Pointing a good portion of the responsibility on the students' parents and communities in their roles in the educational process McCoy takes into account the complexities of the many duties responsibilities frustrations student parent and legal issues facing today's teachers Promising Practices for Family and Community Involvement during High School Lee Shumow, 2009-06-01 This volume focuses on family and community connections with education during the high school years In comparison to the wealth of attention that has been focused on involving parents with schools during the early childhood and elementary school years less attention has been directed to parents of high school students and fewer educational programs have been developed to forge connections between family community students and educators at the high school level Researchers have found that family and community have a very significant impact on student achievement and on post-secondary attainment despite the considerable decline in parental involvement by high school Educators know that family and community factors are important for student success in high school while at the same time they identify working with families and connecting the curriculum to the community as difficult Currently scholars from various fields are involved in conducting research to better understand how schools can best enhance the education of the young through interactions with students' families and communities Educational practitioners also are pioneering efforts to involve and serve families as well as to connect with communities in order to enrich the educational environment and enlarge opportunities for students teachers families and community members This volume which will be of interest to both researchers and educators reflects the interdisciplinary nature of the field The contributors were recruited from diverse fields and workplaces Chapters are organized into two sections to reflect whether the genesis of the work described is from theory and research or from practice and policy Chapters originating from theory and research address adolescent development and family involvement the role of family and community in extracurricular activity participation and the evolution of trust relationships in school community partnership development Chapters originating from practice and policy address transition to high school using the community as a text for learning career education partnerships with businesses post-secondary institutions and community organizations as well as state policies and programs that support parental involvement in postsecondary planning Raising the Grade Robert E. Wise, 2008-04-21 Sharing educational and economic statistics the author presents positive solutions for reforming the secondary education system especially at the federal level Uncommon Education Samuel Nyal Henrie, 2009 Uncommon Education traces the evolution of Prescott College In this compelling work Samuel Henrie and others reveal what led to the inception of this special institution the philosophy behind it and a rare curriculum that includes adventure education social and ecological justice fieldwork and other hands on and unique educational opportunities Sam Henrie has made an immense contribution to higher education by chronicling this grand ongoing adventure in learning Prescott College s hands on feet in the field approach not only makes far more sense than the cattle calls that pass for education at most places but its amazing resilience and resurrection is one of the most hopeful stories for our times a true tale of how good ideas really can win if we never give up Alan Weisman Laureate Professor of Journalism University of Arizona retired Professor of Writing at Prescott College author of The World Without Us Gaviotas A Village to Reinvent the World and other works Home-visiting
