The Mystery of a STOLEN VIRGINITY Chinyere Udeh, 2020-08-28 Many women in the third world and even some civilized countries have been victims of rape and other forms of sexual molestation at one time or the other. The situation is worse in Africa where such incidents go unreported because of fear of stigmatization by society. In many parts of Africa, the girl child grows up in an environment that exposes her to physical, mental, emotional, and sexual abuse that leaves physical and emotional scars she carries all her life. In The Mystery of a Stolen Virginity, Charlotte grew in such an environment where she faced a series of physical, emotional, and sexual molestation. She believed she had successfully navigated through her treacherous environment and successfully preserved her virginity for her eventual husband, Anthony Camper, a loving and very caring man. Throughout their courtship, sexual relationship was excluded and reserved for the magical wedding night. It is ironic, even tragic, when she and her husband discovered on their wedding night that the much cherished and respected virginity had mysteriously disappeared. This shocking discovery raises several questions: To whom, when, and where did Charlotte Camper lose her virginity? Did Charlotte know that she was no longer a virgin? Can their young marriage survive this early shock?

African Journal of Education Studies, 2005      Focus on Nigeria Gordon Collier, 2012 This issue of Matatu offers cutting edge studies of contemporary Nigerian literature: a selection of short fiction and poetry and a range of essays on various themes of political, artistic, socio-linguistic, and sociological interest. Contributions on theatre focus on the fool as dramatic character and on the feminist theatre of exclusion. Tracie Uto Ezeajugh. Several essays examine the poetry of Hope Eghagha and the Delta writer Tanure Ojaide. Studies of the prose fiction of Chinua Achebe, Tayo Olafioye, Uwem Akpan, and Chimamanda Adichie are complemented by a searching exposé of the exploitation of Ayi Kwei Armah on the part of the metropolitan publishing world and by a recent interview with the poet Jumoko Verissimo. Traditional culture is considered in articles on historical sites in Ile Ife, witchcraft in Etsako, warfare and the Awonmili women's collective in Awka. Linguistically oriented studies consider political speeches, drug advertising, and Yoruba anthroponyms. Performance focused essays focus on Emirate court spectacle, durbar, Yoruba drum poetry in contemporary media, gospel music, indigenization, and Islamization of military music, and the role of the filmmaker. Contributions of broader relevance deal with Islamic components of Nigerian culture, the decline of the educational system, and the socio-economic impact of acquisitive culture.

Okunlola,2019-05-17 We have equal rights to the kind of life we desire but we do not make equal sacrifices to show how much we want it Some of us are ready to change something in order to have the change we want but most people want the desired change without making required changes Change for change takes you through the process of having the change you desire in your life It opens your eyes to the things you need to do and why you need to do them It is loaded with life practical examples to inspire you get the best of life It helps you develop desirable qualities and abilities that you need through the process of change      The Godly Role Model Deborah Olusoga,2018-06-15 Gods plans for women is to nurture their children and be the first role model to their daughters but most mothers of today are failing in this responsibilities Are you looking for answers to some difficult questions or situations which youre being faced God is faithfully at work today in the lives of many families around the world renewing their hearts strengthening their love and making their stories a great success God wants to help you too This book has been written as a guide to the younger women singles and married on how to actually lead a successful Christian life in this changing world full of unexpected events such as sudden loss of job loss of close relations terminal illness loss of property academic failure business failure sudden relationship breakup accident etc This book is to inspire women on the importance of taking on the lead role in their homes and in their communities not as the lady boss but as a godly role model to the younger women and due to the fact that children learn by what they hear see and feel there is an urgent need to feed their ears with positive words their minds with love and an urgent need to show them not just the luxuries but also the challenges that come with luxuries an urgent need to lead them out of darkness into God's marvellous light for them to be who they are created to be and for us to fulfil our parts not just as mothers but as great godly mothers Get ready to experience your relationship with your husband and children in a brand new light as God takes the wheel and rekindle the flame of your first love Just as we fan a charcoal fire in order to maintain the fire our love can cool down unless we fan it everyday

Palm of the Rainforest Ikénnà Nnàl?, 2020-08-28 I know who I am Kelvin seemed desperate to win his father's approval However Mr Eze not only seemed unwilling to bestow it but hell bent in making life unbearable for his acclaimed son Kelvin thought it would be best to find his true family rather than endure the torture of being the unwanted child He realised that his quest for recognition was unlikely to succeed so he set his eyes on freedom In the meantime Kelvin expected that a good academic performance would change his luck and put him right with Mr Eze or at least boost his confidence in his abilities With all his attention on his studies competing for the best grades against the leading brains in his class especially Christian an indomitable rival he would not let school romance get in the way of his goal But slowly and steadily Chioma gained his trust and won him over He would have to make a decision between holding on to his moral principle or satisfying his human desire for friendship New Home New Identity Marginalised and decimated the Biafran people were forced to go to war and secede from Nigeria But decades after losing the war and embracing the Nigerian identity they are still not treated as equal citizens in their home country As a new wave of terrorism sweeps the northern parts of the country the Biafran people predominantly Igbo are again decimated as they have been for decades in every crisis and this led to renewed discussions about their independence For Biafra the fight for equality was over and their Sovereignty was not negotiable For Kelvin it wasn't very different and so his quest for truth and independence must begin His compulsory holiday in Igbo land would expose him to the truth that might have indirectly caused him to abandon his academic pursuit Perhaps it was just an excuse to free himself from the clutch of Mr Eze and begin his quest for the truth about his identity

Books, Buildings, and Learning Outcomes Howard White, World Bank. Operations Evaluation Department, 2004 The Millennium Development Goals aim for universal primary education by 2015 and gender equality in enrolments at all levels of education The Education for All EFA initiative lays out a strategy for achieving these goals The Bank's own strategy stresses the school quality aspects of EFA emphasizing the need to focus on preserving learning outcomes while access to education is expanded This report assesses the impact to date of the efforts over the past 15 years toward increasing the quantity and quality of basic education in one African country Ghana

Vocationalisation of Secondary Education Revisited Jon Lauglo, R. Maclean, 2006-03-30 The book is a cutting edge contribution to the debate which has occurred for some time on the pros and cons of secondary education becoming more closely and explicitly related to preparing young people for the world of work The book provides concrete examples of the vocationalisation of secondary education with particular reference to the situation in Africa The target audience for the book includes policy makers practitioners administrators education planners researchers teachers and teacher educators with a concern about the relationship between secondary education and education for the world of work with particular reference to technical and vocational education and training TVET The book appears in the Springer book series on Technical and Vocational Education and Training Issues Concerns and Prospects and compliments the International Handbook of Technical and Vocational Education and Training and other publications in the International Library of TVET all of which are publications of the UNESCO UNEVOC International Centre for TVET in Bonn Germany      Medical Record George Frederick Shrady, Thomas Lathrop Stedman, 1886      Journal of the American Medical Association American Medical Association, 1889 Includes proceedings of the Association papers read at the annual sessions and list of current medical literature      Veterinary Medicine ,1921      The medical record ,1880      The Status of Women and Children in Sierra Leone ,2000
