Spanning an essential range of subjects from the early 1900s Nickelodeon to the decline of the studio system in the 1960s, it combines a broad historical context with careful readings of individual films. Charts the rise of film in early twentieth century America from its origins to 1960, exploring mainstream trends and developments along with topics often relegated to the margins of standard film histories. Covers diverse issues ranging from silent film and its iconic figures such as Charlie Chaplin to the coming of sound and the rise of film genres, studio moguls, and later the Production Code and Cold War Blacklist. Designed with both students and scholars in mind, each section opens with an historical overview and includes chapters that provide close, careful readings of individual films clustered around specific topics. Accessibly structured by historical period, offering valuable cultural, social, and political contexts. Contains careful, close analysis of key filmmakers and films from the era, including D. W. Griffith, Charles Chaplin, Buster Keaton, Erich von Stroheim, Cecil B. DeMille, Don Juan, The Jazz Singer, I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang, Scarface, Red Dust, Glorifying the American Girl, Meet Me in St. Louis, Citizen Kane, Bambi, Frank Capra's Why We Fight series, The Strange Love of Martha Ivers, Rebel Without a Cause, Force of Evil, and selected American avant-garde and underground films among many others. Additional online resources such as sample syllabi, which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general and specialized courses, will be available online. May be used alongside American Film History: Selected Readings, 1960 to the Present, to provide an authoritative study of American cinema through the new millennium.

Bukana, 2015 Demystifying Educational Leadership and Administration in the Middle East and North Africa Khalid Arar, Selahattin Turan, Sedat Gümüş, Abdellatif Sellami, Julia Mahfouz, 2023-12-01 This volume explores how educational leadership and administration (ELA) is constructed in the Middle East and North African region (MENA) and charts the development of ELA as a discipline. Against the backdrop of rapid growth and interest in the educational restructuring, educational reforms, policy, and leadership landscape of the region, chapters investigate issues concerned with the production and utilization of knowledge in the field and analyse the future of ELA in relation to the educational policies and practices in MENA countries. Featuring a broad range of geographically dispersed specialist contributors involved in leadership, policy, and administration, the volume ultimately sheds light on this little researched area of study to demystify common tropes and misunderstandings surrounding ELA in the MENA region. This book will be of use to scholars, researchers, and postgraduate students involved with international and comparative education, higher education management, and education policy and politics more broadly.
