My Last Duchess Applied Practice:

My Last Duchess Iain Crichton Smith, 2015-04-15 Mark Simmons aged 42 is a teacher at a training college His wife has just walked out on him because she has found him so much less interesting than she expected the man she married to be This event which he has by no means expected has jolted him into a major reassessment of himself of his place in the universe He realises that he has become bitter cynical and disillusioned he is a failure intellectually he wanted to be a writer but for years he has striven at one book which he privately knows to be not very good He is a failure as a teacher he wasn't competent enough to obtain a post at a university He is a failure as a husband because his wife was daily moving away from him He is a failure as a father because he and his wife had had no children Above all he is a failure as a human being because he despises everybody not least himself Mark Simmons hates himself for being more concerned with argument than happiness My Last Duchess is a novel of great resourcefulness and energy UGC English Practice Sets Exam Leaders Expert,
