My Two Italies:

My Two Italies Joseph Luzzi, 2014-07-15 A funny and often moving family history that opens onto wider vistas that he knows and loves equally well the Italian cultural and political landscape Ross King New York Times bestselling author The child of Italian immigrants and an award winning scholar of Italian literature Joseph Luzzi straddles these two perspectives to link his family's dramatic story to Italy's north south divide its quest for a unifying language and its passion for art food and family From his Calabrian father's time as a military internee in Nazi Germany where he had a love affair with a local Bavarian woman to his adventures amid the Renaissance splendor of Florence Luzzi creates a deeply personal portrait of Italy that leaps past facile clichés about Mafia madness and Tuscan sun therapy He delves instead into why Italian Americans have such a complicated relationship with the old country and how Italy produces some of the world's most astonishing art while suffering from corruption political fragmentation and an enfeebled civil society With topics ranging from the pervasive force of Dante's poetry to the meteoric rise of Silvio Berlusconi Luzzi presents the Italians in all their glory and squalor relating the problems that plague Italy today to the country's ancient roots He shares how his two Italies the earthy southern Italian world of his immigrant childhood and the refined northern Italian realm of his professional life join and clash in unexpected ways that continue to enchant the many millions who are either connected to Italy by ancestry or bound to it by love In his elegant thoughtful new memoir Luzzi effectively covers lots of ground on Italian identity as a whole Mark Rotella NPR

The Desire of My Eyes Wolfgang Kemp,1992-08 This tour de force of analysis Joel Agee examines the life and work of the prolific visionary writer painter and critic Kemp finds in Ruskin s life which spanned the same years as Queen Victoria s and thus embodied the Victorian era itself a faithful mirror of the history and psychological evolution of his age My Autobiography Benito Mussolini,1928 My Autobiography Benito Mussolini,2017-07-11 The dictated biography of Benito Mussolini spanning from his early youth to his successful coup in Rome Mussolini boisterously narrates his life story first as a Socialist Radical in his youth then as a Fascist strongman following World War I My Autobiography first published in 1928 is an in depth account of the life of a Fascist Revolutionary who inspired countless movements across Europe and was widely although falsely credited with suppressing the Bolshevik movement in Europe Lady Morgan's Italy Donatella Abbate

Badin,2007 This is a scholarly study of Lady Morgan Sydney Owenson and her travel writings on post Napoleonic Italy Morgan a friend of Byron and Moore brought a unique Anglo Irish slant and liberal temperment to her travels and adventures in Italy she also was the first woman from the British literary world to extensively travel and report on 19th c Italy Italy on Screen Lucy Bolton,Christina Siggers Manson,2010 Selected papers presented at the Italy on Screen Conference held at the Institute of Germanic and Romance Studies University of London in 2007 Memories: Journey into an Immigrant'S Mind Emanuel Paparella,2018-08-10 As its title powerfully suggests this bookwhile being a personal memoir a narration of ones life journey from sunrise to sunsettranscends the personal Its uniqueness lies in the fact that these memories are the memories of an immigrant who has lived in the country as a US citizen with an American born father for some sixty years It is much more than a list of events and anecdotes of an immigrant experience It is written in a Dantesque and Vichian spirit and as such it goes beyond the listing of historical events and people More than a physical journey it is an intellectual journey into the mind of an immigrant in search of ones self and ones ethnic identity As such it is a universal journey with which nonimmigrants even native born can easily empathize Our common humanity makes it universal As Dante well put it when he began the narration of his lifes journey In the middle of the journey of our lives I found myself in a dark wood As Dante begins the journey guided by Virgil and Breatrice he finds out that indeed the journey is universal beyond the purely personal As Michelangelo said Ancor imparo I am still learning He uttered such a statement at the venerable age of eighty nine a few days before he died He was still sculpting and learning Likewise if we dare to begin the journey at whatever age we may find ourselves we may soon find out that we too are still learning and the journey may well have a common purpose and destination Conflict and Survival in Contemporary Western European Film John Alexander Williams,Alexandra Hagen,2022-02-23 Since the turn of the twenty first century efforts to improve human rights social equality and democracy in western Europe have faced growing challenges that range from economic and medical crises to the resurgence of the tribalist far right Studying western European cinema reveals how filmmakers have been using their art to reflect on the region s contemporary problems and potentials In Conflict and Survival in Contemporary Western European Film John Alexander Williams and Alexandra Hagen have collected a diverse array of essays that analyzehow filmmakers have portrayed forms of strifeand endurancein the new century Divided into three thematic sections historical conflicts and national identities migrants natives and battles over space and ethical struggles in everyday life this book offers case studies of historical context narrative and form in a range of significant recent films Showcasing such movies as Days of Glory A War Code Unknown The Edge of Heaven Toni Erdmann The Great Beauty and Weekend this fascinating collection presents contemporary filmmakers as critical citizen artists who are directly involved in interrogating the past present and future of Europe The Films of Gianni Amelio Antonio Vitti,2009 The Memoirs of François René, Vicomte de Chateaubriand, Sometime Ambassador to England François-René vicomte de Chateaubriand,1902 The memoirs of François René,

Chateaubriand,1902 Medieval Frontiers: Concepts and Practices David Abulafia,Nora Berend,2017-03-02 In recent years the medieval frontier has been the subject of extensive research But the term has been understood in many different ways political boundaries fuzzy lines across which trade religions and ideas cross attitudes to other peoples and their customs This book draws attention to the differences between the medieval and modern understanding of frontiers questioning the traditional use of the concepts of frontier and frontier society It contributes to the understanding of physical boundaries as well as metaphorical and ideological frontiers thus providing a background to present day issues of political and cultural delimitation In a major introduction David Abulafia analyses these various ambiguous meanings of the term frontier in political cultural and religious settings The articles that follow span Europe from the Baltic to Iberia from the Canary Islands to central Europe Byzantium and the Crusader states The authors ask what was perceived as a frontier during the Middle Ages What was not seen as a frontier despite the usage in modern scholarship The articles focus on a number of themes to elucidate these two main questions One is medieval ideology This includes the analysis of medieval formulations of what frontiers should be and how rulers had a duty to defend and or extend the frontiers how frontiers were defined often in a different way in rhetorical ideological formulations than in practice and how in certain areas frontier ideologies were created The other main topic is the emergence of frontiers how medieval people created frontiers to delimit areas how they understood and described frontiers The third theme is that of encounters and a questioning of medieval attitudes to such encounters To what extent did medieval observers see a frontier between themselves and other groups and how does real interaction compare with ideological or narrative formulations of such interaction Trans=Missions - hand in hand - Marc Glorius,2022-07-05 Trans Missions is a collection of texts essays poems tributes of more than 90 ex students teachers collaborators founders of the United World Colleges UWCs in Duino and Mostar They talk about the beginnings of the school recall the the early school days and try to value the learning they received there The texts can be read as commentaries which reach from particular school experiences to the essence of its education The mosaic formed by the different texts is vivid and colorful its reflections reach deep Where do I we come from connects with the schools future possibilities Authors among many others Cornelia Vospornik Hans Raimund Felix Klein Lussia di Uanis Manuel Fernandez Cesare Onestini Walther Hetzer Marc Glorius Caffaro, Genoa and the Twelfth-Century Crusades Mr Martin Hall,Professor Jonathan Phillips,2013-10-28 This volume provides the first comprehensive English translation with a substantial introduction and notes of the writings of Caffaro of Genoa as well as related texts and documents on Genoa and the crusades The majority of early crusading historiography is from a northern European and clerical perspective Here is a very different voice one with a more secular Mediterranean tone To see the similarities and differences with the mainstream sources offers an exciting new dimension to our understanding of the reception of crusading ideas in the Mediterranean and given Genoa's prominence in the commercial world can help to illuminate the complex and controversial relationship between holy war and financial gain Caffaro's main composition the Annals of Genoa began with the First Crusade and extended down to 1163 It also covers the city's dealings with the Papacy the German Empire Sicily Muslim Spain and Pisa as well as the development of Genoa itself Sections from Caffaro's continuators take the story down to the Third Crusade Caffaro's two other texts are exclusively about the crusades The Liberation of the Cities of the East and The Capture of Almer a and Tortosa while associated with him but of a later date is the Short History of Jerusalem Alongside these narratives are a number of charters and letters that relate to and complement the main texts These relate to matters such as Genoese privileges in the Holy Land and form a valuable resource in their own right Placed alongside Caffaro's narratives they can show the blend of commercial energy civic pride and religious conviction that were the basis of Genoese activity in the complex world of the medieval Mediterranean
