Multicultural Andragogy for Transformative Learning Peltz, David P., Clemons, Anthony C., 2018-07-06 As individuals progress through each stage of life they continue to learn and grow intellectually However what may be a conducive learning environment for a child may not be as effective for an adult creating a need to understand how to aid adults in being successful learners in their later life

Multicultural Andragogy for Transformative Learning provides a diverse collection of positions related to adult learning. The book touches on a variety of topics including autonomous learning as a transformative experience, mixing cultures through intercultural methodology and integrating cultural perspectives into organizational learning. As a publication with a focus on andragogy, this proves a useful resource for academicians, higher education administrators and educators who teach both traditional and non traditional students in higher education.

Contemporary Perspectives on English as a Medium of Instruction Hayriye Kayi-Aydar, Laura Mahalingappa, 2024-03-01 English Medium Instruction (EMI) is the use of English to teach academic content in countries where English is not the first language. There continues to be a rapid growth in EMI around the globe and there is often official government support for EMI programs or curriculum. The goal of this volume is to explore current perspectives on EMI from empirical data to theoretical considerations in order to identify strengths and shortcomings of EMI programs and or curricula, defining ideologies and dominant methodologies in diverse contexts and offer evidence based implications for classroom practice, policy and future research. The chapters reflect the voices of diverse groups of people e.g. content instructors, classroom teachers, college students, parents, teacher educators etc. who experience EMI in their current educational environments in different countries.
